

PUPILS' ITEMS

The strawberries will soon be ripe.

The wild flowers are blooming in the woods.—A. A.

Mary LaRose is now working in the Laundry.

Miss Earlougher is very kind to the girls and boys.—R. L.

George Horne is getting to be a good blacksmith.—S. J.

We were all sorry to see Dr. Tucker leave Chemawa.—M. C.

Lillian Patton's room is one of the best rooms in the small girls' home.

Calvin Darnell did some fine pitching for the second team last Friday.—C. B.

Lewis Towner is working on the garden detail and likes to work there.—J. P.

Our second baseball team played the Y. M. C. A. of Salem and defeated them.—W. L.

The wagonmakers made two bats for the smallest tailor boys last Wednesday.—A. S.

Chapel services are very much nicer since everybody tries to be quiet in chapel. L. T.

Adella Payne went to town Sunday afternoon with her sister and enjoyed herself. E. L.

The roses over at the old hospital are in bloom and they look very beautiful on the vines.

Miss Troutman says that her girls are improving in their marching to and from chapel. J. R.

Mrs. Hay took some girls out for a walk Sunday and they all enjoyed it very much. D. G.

Hazel Picard and Virginia Garry are successful in finding four leaf clovers near McBride Hall.—T. L.

We all enjoyed the talk last Monday evening of Mr. McMillan, International Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Chemawa second team defeated the intermediate boys of the Y. M. C. A. of Salem on Friday. The score was 9 to 1.

The second grade has this motto on their blackboard: "The school is a garden and the children are the flowers."—L. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith took a few of us girls out for a walk in the country last Sunday, which we all enjoyed. H. F.

A post card was received from Edward Sommerville of Briceland, Cal., and he wishes to be remembered by all his friends. J. L.

Geo. Washoe, one of our '07 graduates, is doing very nicely at Prosser, Wash., His trade is certainly a great benefit to him.—M. B.

A large number of girls and boys of this school went up to see the races Saturday afternoon, which were held at the fair grounds.

May Evans received a pretty silk waist from one of her friends last Sunday for a birthday present. And she is very proud of it. N. E. S.

Miss Skipton took nine of the girls out to old Chemawa for a picnic last Wednesday. We all had a splendid time. Many thanks to Miss Skipton. L. S.

We all enjoyed the pleasant walk last Sunday with Miss Royer. Some of us had the pleasure of gathering flowers, and Miss Royer had a basket full of pine needles for a pillow, which we all had fun helping her pick. It was rather rough work, but very enjoyable.—V. G.