

PUPILS' ITEMS

Lizzie Martin plays very nicely on the piano. Her favorite piece is the "Burning of Rome."

The first rose that bloomed in the school house yard was in the eighth grade's garden.—L. M.

We are all glad to have Amelia Underville with us again. Amelia is an excellent laundress and will do your fine laundry work for you.

The girls all enjoyed the street car ride Saturday when they went up to the state fair grounds to see the five-mile race between Chemawa and Corvallis. The street cars were very slow in getting us to and from Salem on Saturday.—H. H.

We are all glad to see Miss Iva Cox back with us again.—L. M.

We all had an enjoyable time at the fair grounds Saturday.—M. L.

George Wason says he is going to be a good ball player when he gets big.—R. S.

Mrs. Wilbur Scott, from Portland, visited some of her friends in Chemawa last week.—M. M.

Jennie Rosenburger received a letter from her father saying he will be here soon to visit his children.—V. B.

Robert Brothers, an ex pupil, says he is getting along very nicely at his home in Idaho and he will be with us again this summer.—W. W.

If one should look at the interior of the new gymnasium he could scarcely realize that it was once an old barn. It will be, when completed, one of the best gymnasiums in the Northwest.—H. J.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE,

WASHINGTON, MAY 5, 1908.

SUPT. SALEM INDIAN SCHOOL,
CHEMAWA, OREGON.

SIR:

Thank you for the 500 copies of the Reports of Agents and Superintendents in South Dakota, Utah and Washington, just received. It is an excellent piece of work and reflects great credit on every one connected with the school printery.

Yours respectfully,

F. M. CONSER,
Chief Clerk.
