THE "SPA,"

382 State St.

A doting parent was telling the other night about the precocity of children. "Pardon me," he said, "if I mention one of my own youngsters. He was required to write a composition on Quakers. This is the way he put it: Quakers never quarrel, never get into a fight, never blow, never jaw back. My pa is a Quaker, but I really don't know what to call ma."—Ex.
