

PUPILS' ITEMS

Some roses are in bloom by the dairy.
—A. R.

Walter Haight is getting to be a fine carpenter.—O. C.

Lillie Burns is one of the best workers in the laundry.—E. L.

We are glad to see Mamie Curl back to Chemawa again.—A. L.

Miss Koester took some girls out for a walk Sunday afternoon.—A. G.

We are all glad that June is coming for the roses are in bloom.—C. W.

Christina Lane has some very pretty slips of plants for her room.—M. G.

The nurse girls like Dr. Poxton. They say he is very kind to them.—M. L.

Emma Shepard painted a very pretty picture for one of her friends.—M. M.

Mr. Henry Sicide, of Puyallup, was here at Chemawa for a short visit Sunday.

Miss Evans brought some pretty flowers into the second grade room one morning last week.—F. M.

Fred Bain is helping the painters paint the roof of the gymnasium this week.—H. J.

Amos Smoker says he is going to make the track team if it takes his head.—F. F. S.

Helen Harnden is having a new suit made which will be very pretty when finished.—V. J. F.

Typical Oregon weather now predominates at Chemawa. The weather man smiles on us.—W. M.

Loulin Brewer is getting to be a very good pitcher.—C. L.

Marguerite Morais received a very pretty white dress from her mother last Sunday.—L. S.

Miss Brown says she is very proud of her flower garden because her plants are coming up very fast.

Mrs. Brewer and Ruth left Monday for their home in Tacoma, where they will visit awhile.—L. M.

The McBride Hall girls enjoyed the music given by the Mandolin Club. Come again girls.—M. H.

Orin French is now working in the blacksmith shop and he says he likes his work very much.—P. T.

Emma Shepherd is getting to be a good mandolin player. Most of her spare time she is seen practicing.—L. M.

When the eighth grade has passed to the junior class they will be sorry to leave their pretty pennant.—L. M.

Louis Elwood and Gilbert Towner and their father went to Seattle to see the Atlantic fleet Saturday.—P. B.

Annie Sherman and Dora Goodman made some delicious biscuits in the domestic science last Friday.—V. B.

The sweet peas that were planted at the lower end of McBride Hall are in bloom and look very nice.—V. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith took some girls out for a walk last Sunday afternoon. We were very much pleased.—L. D.

This is a very busy week for the pupils, also the teachers, and we hope to be able to pass the examination.—M. E.

John Miller, a former Chemawa student, has again enrolled in the CIS and has entered the painting department.