

A SOCIAL EVENT.

Miss Florence Hutchinson entertained a number of her friends Wednesday evening at her rooms, which were beautifully decorated with Chemawa's peerless roses. Games were the order of the evening and so enthusiastic were all in following the lead of the most nimble wits that time and its inexorable decree about not waiting, etc., was entirely forgotten until called to mind by the twinkle of lights.

Mr. Ruthyn Turney and Miss Gertrude Brewer gave some exquisite selections from their musical repertoire and dainty refreshments were served by Miss Hutchinson and her assistants. The merriment continued until the leave taking of their hostess, when the guests expressed themselves as having spent a most delightful evening.

Among those present were: Misses Katherine Earlougher, Elizabeth Leudke, Genevieve Royer, Cora Steponeck, Iva Cox, Irene Campbell, Olive Skipton, Katherine Brown, Bertha Cooper, Caroline Koester, Gertrude Brewer, Mrs. M. E. Hay and Messers. Harry Fickle, Howard Bowen, Ruthyn Turney, L. A. Woodin, of Chemawa; Mrs. Emmett, Misses Frances Howard, Irene Howard and Mr. J. Mason of Salem, and Mr. M. McKay of San Francisco.

Brevities

Katie Brewer is teaching the fifth normal during their final test. She takes delight in teaching and pleases her pupils.

The first team plays the Eugene High School at Eugene today and will play Silverton High tomorrow at Chemawa.

Peter Seltice is back from Salem after a brief illness in the Salem Hospital. His friends are glad to seem him back.

Mr. John H. Venter of Lincoln, Neb., has reported as harness maker, succeeding Mr. J. Swaboda, who was temporarily filling the position.

Ralph Allen, an ex-pupil, wrote to one of his old friends stating that he is enjoying life's pleasure in Sunnyside, Wn. He is earning a pretty good salary working in a mill.

Edward Ainsworth says that his classmates will have to go some to get ahead of him in examination.

Assistant Superintendent Campbell and a number of employes went to Salem, Wednesday evening, to attend a public speaking.

The band boys went to Salem Wednesday evening, to appear as a musical feature in a parade given at the capital city. They came home in a special car, arriving here about 11 o'clock.

Tomorrow is Memorial Day and Chemawa will hold fitting exercises in remembrance of her honored dead. Throughout the length and breadth of this great republic flowers will be placed over the eternal resting places of the beloved departed, and tears will dampen the sod o'er the graves of those whose memory we hold dear. Honored be the day.

The result of the Senior examinations was as follows:

1. Alfred Lane.....	95 5-7
2. Louise Murray	94 2-7
3. Gordon Hobucket.....	93 2-7
4. Tillie Souvigner	92 3-7
5. Katie Brewer.....	91 2-7
6. Harry Queahpalma	89 4-7
7. Belle Dillstrom.....	88 3-7
8. Martin Sampson	86 3-7
9. Joe Lane.....	86 1-7
10. Louis John.....	84 3-7
11. Webster Hudson.....	82 6-7