The senate passed a bill Wednesday, providing a pension of $12 per month for the Indian policemen living, and widows of those killed, in the capture of Sitting Bull at Standing Rock Agency in 1890. The recognition of these brave men, although somewhat tardy, is well merited and all acquainted with the fact of the case, will be pleased to see that they are thus rewarded for their faithful services.—Weekly Review.

Leaves of absence for the various employees have been granted. Vacations have been arranged so that each department will be looked after during the entire time. Part of the employees will leave on June 22 and the rest will leave on July 28. Several employees will take part of the vacation without pay. A number have been detailed to attend the Cleveland N. E. A.—Sherman Bulletin.

Supt. E. A. Atkinson, of Parker, Arizona, has been transferred to Truxton Canyon, and Supervisor Holland is detailed to relieve him by July 1. Superintendent Atkinson is securing a nice school and a desirable change of climate for July.—Native American.

The Y. M. C. A. quartet, composed of Robert Yellowtail, James Nasha, Camilio Ardia and Harry Wentworth, pleased the student body on Sunday evening with "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight." It was their first appearance before the school. The choir and glee club also rendered several selections. Benito Amago gave a violin solo.

A custard pie made by Rosa Solida, doughnuts by Jennie Maxwell, and a jar of salad by Juanita Lisalda were sent to the superintendent for inspection by Mrs. Haller, housekeeper at the ranch, the other day. These samples and many others received previously are good evidence that the ranch girls receive excellent training in cookery. A more contented lot of girls would be hard to find than those at the ranch. ---Sherman Bulletin.

Martha Cornsilk, who graduated with the class of '08 and is now studying nursing, writes entertainingly of her experiences in a city hospital. She says: "Sometimes it is very amusing to us to hear some of our patients asking queer questions concerning ourselves. Because we are known as Indians they seem to think we are natives of India. This would make anyone smile. Yesterday I was dusting one of the private wards, and there is an Italian in it. This man does not speak much English, so he said, 'You belong to Japa?' I told him, 'No!' He said 'Indi?' I said 'No.' 'Well,' he said, 'where is your country?' I thought it was time to express myself, so I told him I was an American!"—Arrow.

Much has been done here recently in the way of improvement. New buildings are being erected, many yards of concrete walk laid out and new employees added to the staff. All of this is inspiring to the student body and places the school in a better position to turn out excellent citizens.—The Arrow.

Frank Mt. Pleasant is getting into shape for the American Olympia team, which will go to London in July. James Thorp and some of the distance men will also participate in the trials which will be held in Philadelphia on June 6th. It would be a great honor to be chosen to represent America in the Olympic world's championship—not only for the individual but for the school and the whole Indian race.—The Arrow.
