

LOCALS

Some boys take delight in picking wild flowers.

Buey! Busy!! Busy!!! Something doing all the time.

The new gymnasium has received its first coat of paint.

Quite a number of our people went down to Portland to see the Rose Carnival.

Thos. McCully was acting disciplinarian when Mr. Larsen went to Portland last week.

Joe Charles returned to school on Tuesday morning. We are glad to have him back again.

Quite number of boxes of strawberries were shipped away from the vicinity of Chemawa this week.

The sixth grade girls visited the printing office Monday after school and some of the girls were shown type lice.

A postal card was received from John Smith, Neah Bay, Washington, in which he stated that he is getting along nicely.

The Juniors were sorry to have their two classmates, Fred and Clarence Lewis, leave them. They went home for their vacation.

Dr. Pierce was seen in Portland by those who went down to the Carnival and sends his regards to all his Chemawa friends.

The Chemawa Y. M. C. A. delegates will leave here June 12th for Long Beach, Wn., for the Pacific Northwest Y. M. C. A. Conference.

Joe Charles arrived Tuesday morning, on the overland, from California, after having a long vacation. His friends were all glad to see him.

The band boys are now directed by Mr. Stoudenmeyer, who comes out from Salem during the week days and gives them instructions from 2. p. m. to 4p.m.

A small cup is to be given to the winning team of the Rose Avenue baseball league. The teams are named as follows: Unions, Black Cats, Tigers and Tyees.

Mrs. Campbell, Miss Irene Campbell, Miss Noble, Miss Royer, Miss Leudke and Miss Earlougher went to Portland to hear the Damrosch orchestra and Nordica. They were delighted with the music.

Mrs. Campbell, principal teacher, entertained the Seniors and their friends, at her own cottage, last Thursday night. It was an interesting affair and the account of it will be given in next week's AMERICAN.

Today photographs of different parts of the grounds and students were taken. The interior view of various departments will be taken later. After this we will have plenty of slides for our stereopticon, of different views of Chemawa and its students.

Athletics

Little Joe Bittles can be seen with his white initialed sweater playing baseball every evening.

Haynes Bateman is practicing catching ball. Simon Matthews is his "twirler," who is commonly known as Chop Suey.

Joe Charles registered as catcher for the second baseball team the first thing after he arrived. Manager Eugene Williams was lucky enough to come around before the others.