

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Nelse Charles is again working in the bakery.

Willie Pratt is again working in the kitchen, after a short spell of illness.

Ernest David, commonly called "Salt Peter," is working on the industrial detail.

Alec Lee, after being apprenticed in the carpenter shop, is now working in the bakery.

Alden Clark is highly complimented by Mr. Venter for his work in the harness shop.

Joe Dillstrom is now working for Mr. Cooper during the absence of his brother, Henry.

Meri Poland did good work welding a tire for a wagon wheel in the blacksmith shop.

Joseph Pablo is now apprenticed in the harness shop. He was working there before.

Mr. Bowen and his boys are to be congratulated for their work on various parts of the campus.

If any one should happen to visit the blacksmith shop he'd find Sam McCush busy fixing a mowing machine.

Mr. Smith and a force of boys cut the lower limbs off of the trees between the office and Supt. Chalcraft's cottage.

Vernie Cliffe made some fine biscuits in the Domestic Science Class. The first she ever made. Stay with it, Vernie.

Seymour Goudy completed his first set of harness a couple of days ago. He is proud of the results of his labor and his friends are invited to inspect his work.

Last Wednesday Mr. Picard came to the blacksmith shop with his horse to have him shod. Orin French undertook the job.

Caroline Wright is working for Mr. and Mrs. Chalcraft, after having had charge of the dining hall girls as sergeant for some time. Ida Johnson has taken her place.

NESIKAS ENTERTAIN

The chapel was crowded to its full capacity Wednesday evening in attendance of the Nesika Club entertainment. There are some twenty members of the club and they were all on the stage. The first part of the program was in the nature of a minstrel performance and was interesting and very creditable; consisting of the following numbers, interspersed with jokes:

Opening Song	-	-	-	Entire Company
Song—Ragtime—I'll be Happy Till I Die	-	-	-	E. J. Rink
Song—Sentimental—School Days	-	-	-	F. Souvigner
Song	-	-	-	Quartette
	-	-	-	Miller, Evans, Larsen and McCully
Recitation—Comic	-	-	-	Calvin Darnell
Song—Comic—Ta Ta, Au Revoir	-	-	-	Walton
Song—Sentimental—Where Love Alone Is	-	-	-	King
Song—Ragtime—Let Me go Back	-	-	-	L. Evans
Funny Sayings	-	-	-	Booth
Song—Bass Solo	-	-	-	E. Williams
Song—Ragtime—Fee Gee Man	-	-	-	Thos. McCully
Song—Sentimental—Good-night Little Girl,	-	-	-	Darnell
Good-night	-	-	-	James Sloan
Song—Sentimental—Rock, Rock, Rock	-	-	-	Alden Clark
Song—Captivat' Soo	-	-	-	Barney Vincent
Closing Song	-	-	-	Entire Company
	-	-	-	Miss Gertrude Brewer, pianist.

At the conclusion of the above numbers a large cartoon was thrown across the stage. It was certainly in its originality of conception a credit to the painter, Joe Dillstrom. After this a pot-pourri of everything followed for half an hour. Altogether it was very creditable to the members of Nesika Club.
