

LOCALS

Rev. Mr. Bauer of the Salem Congregational church addressed the students Sunday evening.

As we go to press we hear that there was a birthday party at Chemawa. We will give our readers an account of it next week.

Miss Lizzie Westley, daughter of Mr. John Westley, our gardener, was married to Dr. Evans of Salem on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. H. L. Fickle made a flying trip to Tacoma, where he now is. An account of his trip, both going and returning, is promised for next week's issue.

Strawberries! Did you say strawberries? Yes, Mr. Westley's boys picked five tubs of the berries for one meal this week and had to duplicate the supply the next day in order to pick the entire patch.

A number of girls, chaperoned by Misses Evans and Brown, attended the commencement exercises of the college of music of the Willamette University Monday night. All reported a good time and enjoying the concert.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt and son were Chemawa's visitors this week. Mr. Hunt is an ex-Chemawan and his wife was employed here as house-keeper. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt lately have been employed at the Siletz Boarding School, which has been abolished, to take effect July 1. They are now on their vacation prior to their transfer to Warm Springs as industrial teacher and seamstress. Their friends were glad to welcome them to Chemawa.

Athletics

We are playing two games every evening in order to keep up with the schedule and if you want to see Chemawa's future ball players come out and see us play. Teabo handles the indicator and his decisions are never questioned.
