

PUPILS' ITEMS

William Morgan is very proud of his two little owls.

Sara Brewer is getting to be quite a good bread maker.—V. C.

Nels Charles, who was in the hospital on account of illness, is out again.

The wagonette belonging to the school is being taken to pieces and all fixed.

On Tuesday morning we had cherries from Chemawa's orchard for breakfast.

Mr. Larsen went to Salem, Tuesday, and Geo. Washo acted as disciplinarian.

We had cherries for breakfast this morning and we all enjoyed eating them.

Louise Murray and Tillie Souvigner, chaperoned by Miss Evans, went to Salem last Saturday.

Christina Victor intends to take piano lessons from Miss Irene Campbell. We wish Christina success.

Tillie Souvigner, Bell Dillstrom, Helen Fairfield, and Calvin Darnell are new members of the choir.—M. L.

Edith Milne, a former pupil of Chemawa, is now enjoying the spring beauty of Metlakatla, Alaska.—A. M.

Tuesday morning, in the domestic science department, Vernie Cliffe made some very nice biscuits.—S. B.

Jeanette Aubrey is now the orderly at McBride Hall, and Mrs. Theisz says "she will be a good little orderly".

Mr. Campbell is looking after the new sanitarium a great deal of the time. He is very much interested in it.—M. L.

Since Esther Napoleon and Allah Madison have been working in the domestic science department they have become expert biscuit makers; and can also make some delicious ginger cookers.—D. C.

Mrs. Bewley, our mess cook, will be missed by all her friends when she leaves, as she expects to do next week.

The blacksmiths have been very busy of late preparing the farm implements, such as mowers and hay rakes.—E. F. Mc.

The Fourth of July is near at hand and we must all be prepared for a jolly good time. Don't forget the fireworks.—P. G.

The pupils enjoyed a mess of strawberries Monday for supper and a mess of cherries Wednesday morning for breakfast.—C. L. D.

We are glad to have the Junior quartette return from the beach. They certainly did some splendid work while at Long Beach attending the Y. M. C. A. assembly.—M. H.

We are all glad to see Alta Bewley's smiling face back in Chemawa. She has been attending School at Salem during the past winter, but we are sorry to hear she has been sick the greater part of the time.—A. W.

On Monday morning Mrs. Campbell started to practice the operetta which will be for commencement. Both she and the girls will try to have the play a successful one, but we all know nothing can be a failure under Mrs. Campbell's instruction.

Athletics

John Sortor is now second baseman for the Black Cat's baseball team.

The Chemawa baseball team went to Albany Tuesday to play a game with the Athletic Club. The score was 14 to 11 in favor of Albany.
