Anybody can play the fool, but it requires genius to make it pay well.

Before we had learned to pronounce "chauffeur" they sprang "aviator" on us.

Honesty is the best policy, but too many people fail to keep the premiums paid up.

The excuse of every man who does not mind his business is that he is trying to do good.

"Peace on earth, good will to men," is a good national policy, but it takes a good navy to back it up.

A diet of peanuts and sour milk is said to insure longevity to those who care to live on such fodder.
