

PUPILS' ITEMS

We are glad to see Clara Reed out of the hospital again.—M. C.

Ben More and James Benjamin are Mr. Bowen's best lawn mowers.

Joe Bittles went with the base ball players last Friday to Dallas.—G. W.

Frank Dan and Walter Haight are training for the big race on the fourth of July.

John Darnell is still hard at work catching birds. He caught one last Monday.

The advanced sewing room girls are working hard to get their dresses made for Commencement.—A. W.

We are all glad to see Maggie Curl back in school again. She has been in the hospital for a few days.—M. P.

Never until last night did anyone realize what a beautiful voice John Horne had. He just did fine.—V. C.

Philip Rees' mother came to Chemawa to spend the Fourth of July with her children. We hope she will enjoy the Fourth here.—G. O.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Chalcraft and Miss Royer surprised the members of the Y. W. C. A. and Branch by an enjoyable picnic. At 2:30 o'clock we went to the gymnasium and different ring games were played. Late in the afternoon a number of girls helped Mrs. Chalcraft to get supper ready, which was the best of all as it was spread upon the grass. After supper we all went out for a walk, and flowers were gathered. All came home happy as larks, singing songs.—M. J.

Some of the raspberries are ripe.—FM
Carl Cook is busy in the garden.—A. W.

The painters are hard at work on the roofs now.—R. J.

The gardeners are going to pick cherries for several days.—A. M.

The band gets out in the mornings before breakfast to drill. Very well.—J. O.

Sunday afternoon we went out for a walk with Mrs. Smith to Old Chemawa.—C. J.

We all wish Chemawa will win the relay race at Salem on the 4th of July.—T. C.

The boys and girls are glad the 4th of July is so near. We all hope to have a good time.—E. L.

We all enjoyed the entertainment on Monday evening, which was given the pupils of the first grade.—L. H.

James Palkanute who arrived recently from Toppenish, Wash. is now apprenticed at the wagonshop.—J. C. S.

Monday morning a little bird came in the second grade room to see what we were doing. He came in through the window.—J. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Fickle took some of us girls out for a walk Sunday, which we enjoyed very much, and hope they will take us again.—G. B.

Sunday evening the talks that were given by the four boys who attended the conference at Long Beach were enjoyed by all who heard them.—S. B.

The 4th of July does not seem as if it is ever coming, but keep your eyes open; do the best you can in making some money with which to have a good time that day.—S. E. A.
