

LOCALS

We are all glad to have Miss Howard with us again.

Thomas Case went to Gladstone Park with the band boys.

The pupils were reseated in the dining hall last Monday evening.

Cherries ripe, cherries ripe! Who will buy the cherries ripe?

Mr. Campbell and family spent the Fourth in Salem with friends.

Quite number of boys are now sleeping out of doors these warm nights.

Miss Irene Campbell is teaching Dolly Case a piece to play for Commencement.

We had song service and talks from Mr. Chalcraft and Mr. Campbell on Sunday night.

Mr. Smith is acting disciplinarian while Mr. Larsen is at the Chautauqua with the band.

Quite a number of boys were called upon to pick strawberries for the neighboring farmers.

The band boys left for the Chautauqua last Monday afternoon accompanied by Mr. Chalcraft.

It is a customary for Miss Evans' pupils to sing "Doxology" and repeat the Lord's Prayer before studying.

Mrs. Brewer accompanied Miss Lily Brewer to Gervais on Sunday. Mrs. Brewer returned, but Miss Brewer remained there a few days.

Ella Brewer played the hymns and the march in chapel on Sunday. Dolly Case played them the previous Sunday. It is excellent practice for our girls.

PUPILS' ITEMS

The dairy boys are now cutting vetch.—T. C.

Mrs. Logan, from Siletz, is here visiting her daughter, Ethel.—C. R.

The choir is now practicing some new songs for Commencement.—T. M.

Miss Koester took ten girls out for a nice long walk last evening.—L. R.

We have some very beautiful pictures on the wall of the Third Grade room.—J. C.

The sewing room girls are all glad to see Miss Skipton back from her vacation.—S. W.

The Senior Class girls now take their meals in the Domestic Science Department.—S. B.

We are all glad to know that the baseball boys are having such a victorious season.—H. H.

All the gardeners, kitchen boys, dairy boys, and industrial boys had a picnic Tuesday.—R. W.

The Sixth Grade pupils are glad to see their class-mate, Thomas Mullings, at school again.—L. S.

Mrs. Campbell is working very hard with the girls and boys preparing for Commencement.—L. M.

The drilling of the Chemawa Battalion in Salem on the Fourth of July was highly praised by the Salem people.—H. D.

Miss Earlougher read a nice story to some of the girls and the boys in her class the other day about Christopher Columbus.—L. R.