Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Cooper charmingly entertained the class of '08 and their friends at their summer home adjoining the school July 4th. All spent a delightful time swinging on the swings, playing games, etc. A delicious luncheon was served under the cherry trees on the campus to which ample justice was done. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Swaim, Mrs. A. Cooper, Misses Mabel Swaim, Florence Hutchinson, Katie Brewer, Louise Murray, Belle Dillstrom, Tillie Souvigner, Messrs. Henry Dillstrom, Geo. Swaim and Clarence Cooper.

Superintendent Thompson of the Southeastern Alaska School paid Chemawa a visit Thursday. He was much pleased with the good work carried on at Chemawa and was agreeably surprised at the large school and force of employes necessary to carry on the education of the pupils. This was Superintendent Thompson's first visit to a large non-reservation Indian School and his tour of inspection of the academic and industrial shops will give a broader scope of the work "Uncle Sam" is doing towards the uplifting and educating of the youthful charges consigned to his care.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Beard, who are spending their honeymoon at the residence of the groom's parents on Klamath Lake, glowingly described the beauties of that section. Mr. Beard was for several years employed at Chemawa and took an active interest in the band. His wife, formerly Miss Kate Adams, of the class of '08 of Oregon Agricultural College, is a highly accomplished young woman. Mr. and Mrs. Beard will be at home to their many friends at Corvallis after Sept. 1st. The American and many Chemawa friends wish them much happiness.
