Brewer Hall organized a baseball team of left and right hand batters.

The Big Z's are on the lead of the Sun Set League. They won four and lost one.

The Chicago Derbys lost their fast center fielder, Ernest Brewer who is out for his vacation.

David Graham is the Amateurs' old stand-by. He has won four straight games for them this season.

On Wednesday there was no game on account of our boys having a rest for the game on Thursday with the Albany team.

Cyril Morrisette, the fast Chicago Derby short stop, was hit in the jaw in an attempt to field a fast grounder in yesterday's game.

The Big Z's sent the Amateurs to the tall timbers last Monday evening. Wm. Watkins was the Amateurs' greatest twirler and Poland was for Big Z's. Hurrah, Hurrah for Poland!—E. D.

The Amateurs met defeat at the hands of the fast aggregation, the Big Z's Monday by the tune of 2 to 1. It was almost an errorless game, fast and snappy.

Both sides put up their best twirlers for the day. Merl Poland pitched for the Big Z's and William Watkins for the Amateurs. The former was touched up for only one hit. The Big Z's batted Watkins for six hits.

In Tuesday's game the Big Z's won from the Chicago Derbys by the score of 7 to 2. The feature of the game was the heavy hitting by Frank Dan, the left fielder of the Big Z's. He was at bat four times and made three hits. In the third inning he made a two-bagger and in the fifth made a three-bagger. Calvin Darnell pitched for the Big Z's and George Washoe for the Chicago Derby's.

AN INFANTINE TEMPEST.

An amusing conversation took place in the sewing-room one day this week between two of the smallest tots in the school. Miss Brown had put several of the smallest girls at some work and had placed them in charge of little five-year-old Zap Byers.

This very much incensed little Lucy Sexton who resented being placed under the charge of so small a girl. She said to Miss Brown, "I don't want Zap to boss me. I don't want to be bossed by a little, tiny girl like her."

Miss Brown insisted that Zap was quite large enough to make a good "boss." Lucy became very angry, and said, "I don't like her. I don't like any body, and I don't like God!" where upon Zap reproved her by remarking, "O, Lucy Sexton, you'll be burned up!
