

LOCALS

Mr. Teabo went to Salem last Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Iva Cox has gone to Forrest Grove to attend a wedding.

Misses Bertha Cooper and Iva Cox spent Sunday in Salem.

Some of the girls went to Salem last Wednesday morning on a shopping trip.

In a postal received from Leon Parker, of the class of '06, he stated that he is getting along fine at his home in Irma, Calif.

Harry Jones attended the last day of the Chautauqua in Oregon city. He reported that he had a fine time while there.

Miss Jane Evans came up from Portland, Monday, for a visit with Mrs. Brewer and family and to get a glimpse of Chemawa once again.

Mr. Wills, of Salem, brought a grand square piano to the school from his store Monday evening, which is to be used in the Commencement exercises.

Mrs. Hudson of Clover Blossom Farm, Tangent, Ore., and Mrs. Powell of Klammath Agency, Ore., visited Mr. and Mrs. Swaim last week. They were very much pleased with everything shown them on the grounds and about the buildings. They were greatly pleased with the intelligence of the pupils.

HOW THEY ANSWERED.

A few days ago Miss Dohse showed her class a picture of the children who were looking at an open book, their faces showed interest, as if the pages contained a very pleasing story. "What do you think they are reading about?" was asked the little first grade pupils. The answers given were as follows:

Paul Revere, Joe Gale; A party, Wm. Gale; Christmas, M. Williams; Christmas presents, Arthur Moore; General Putnam, Bob Downie; Christmas, Joe Bittles; Clothes and food, Forrest Walker; Gen. Ulyssus Grant, Aaron Brazille; All about Jesus, Buster Towner; About home, John Beyers; Vacation, Dan Condon.

ANOTHER LETTER

Following is another uncorrected letter from a seven-year-old tot of the first grade:

Chemawa Oregon

June 24 1908

My Dear brother

I am well and hope you are the same Ellen got your letter Josephine Harris and Dora Luke are my best friends tell papa to tell Myrtle that I said hello and Marie said hellow I am learning fast now I am going to the second grade I like to go to school here I wesh you was here we have strawberries sometimes all the roses are in bloom Miss Dohse is my teacher I work in the sewing room I am learning lots of peaces I wesh I could move Home

your loving sister

JANE BAILY

Exhibit work is being put up in the school building this week.

The pupils of the various grades take great interest in fixing up their school rooms. The appearance of every room is greatly improved by the decorations.