

Brevities

The bakers were cleaning up around their shop Wednesday.

Russel Whitebear is now working on the farm, running the binder.

Reggie Downie and Jasper Grant have been working at the wood shed the past week.

The gardener boys were out digging potatoes for the kitchen last Wednesday morning.

Reggie Downie, who has been working at the workshed, has been assisting the painters this week.

Calvin Darnell, John McCush and Jasper Grant oiled Mrs. Campbell's floor Tuesday morning.

Teddy Klutche, one of our smallest boys in the school, was helping Mr. Mann clean up the yard around the blacksmith shop Wednesday.

Leo Barnaby was leveling the ground between the old printing office and Mr. Moran's cottage last Tuesday.

Mr. Smith and Ed. Ainsworth were taking out an electric light post in front of the office Tuesday morning.

Lily, Eddie, Charlie and Robert Stensgar left for their home in Washington on the 3 o'clock train Wednesday.

Frank Souvigner was mowing the lawns Tuesday with the mowing machine, getting the lawns in condition for commencement.

Albert James, who recently entered the printing department, was out cleaning yards with Mr. Swaim last Wednesday morning.

Besides making a cinder path in front of the new gymnasium Tuesday. Supt.

Chalcraft also put cinders on the road leading to the wood pile from the gate.

Miss Evans has put some very nice work on display in the show case at the school building.

Philip Moss was laying cement at the foot of the switch board recently put up. Philip Moss is a Montana boy and is learning rapidly in the engineering department. He stated, while at home he was a lumber jack.

---

CHEMAWA DAY.

Saturday was "Chemawa Day" at the Chautauqua at Gladstone Park and quite a number of our people were in attendance. Six little tots rendered "Mother Goose Up to Date." Following is the program:

Selection.....	Band
Piano duet.....
..... Margaret Lowry, Esther Napoleon
Recitation—"Tired Little Worm".....
..... Josephine Harris
Song—"Totem Pole".....	Martin Sampson
Piano Solo.....	Katie Brewer
Song—"Tell Me Will My Dream
Come True".....	Lee Evans
Recitation—"Mother Goose Up to Date"
Florence Horne, The Boot; Chas.
Brazille, Slipper; Lawrence Ma-
hatch, Sandal; Josephine Harris,
Stoeking; Bobby Horne, Moccasin; Jane Bailey, Oxford Tie; Mc-Kinley Moses, Rubber.
Song—"The Sentinel Asleep".....
..... John Horne
Selection--(a) "Comedy King" March
(b) "To Live, To Love, To Die."
..... Mandolin Club
Violin Solo—"Grand Fantasie".....
..... Ruthyn Turney

Concerning the program the Oregonian said: "The Indian program given at the forum yesterday was as fine as it was unique."