

PUPILS' ITEMS

Alfred Lott says he likes to catch squirrels.—P. J.

We are all glad commencement will soon be here.—L. C.

We are all glad that vacation is coming soon.—C. D.

Teddy Kluehe entered the small boys home last Friday.

Jerry Rees is getting to be a good baseball player.—W. S.

Louise Moss is sick. She is over at the hospital.—J. F.

Louise Murray has finished her traveling suit this week.

The boys and girls are glad to see the band boys back again.—A. L.

George Horne's friends are sorry to see him in the hospital this week.

George Williams is now working at Mr. Campbell's office.—J. D.

Neta Jones and Dora Goodman did some nice work on the blackboard.—D. B.

Clara Reed is a very nice floor girl. Miss Troutman is very proud of her.—A. M.

Mrs. Newcomb is getting to be a good painter. She was painting her room on Monday.—J. R.

Some of the third grade boys brought some very pretty ferns to the school room yesterday.—C. S.

Emma Cameron and Ethel Wilson are seen watering Miss Troutman's flower beds every evening.—C. R.

George Goss, who has been in the hospital for a week or so, was dismissed last Sunday and his friends were glad to see him around again.

Lela Wilson, Annie Evans and Bessie Williams take great interest in improving the appearance of our dining hall. Last Monday they put up all the new window curtains.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Fred Wright finished a double working harness Tuesday morning.

The blacksmith boys were fixing the tires on the slop wagon Tuesday.

A force of boys were sandpapering the walls of the gymnasium Tuesday.

Charley Stensger is out of the hospital and at his bench in the shoe shop again.

The carpenters began shingling the roofs of the sanitorium Wednesday morning.

The engineers cleaned the yard back of the engineering department last Tuesday morning.

A number of the boys picked raspberries for Mr. Noran, one of the neighboring farmers, Monday.

Mr. Chalcraft and a force of boys were cleaning the cinders from behind the power house Tuesday afternoon.

Caroline Wright is again working in Mr. Chalcraft's cottage after Supt. and Mrs. Chalcraft's return from two weeks at the Chautauqua, at Gladstone Park. Caroline is a good housekeeper.