Mrs. Campbell was the recipient of a handsome shawl made by Miss Noble.

We had rain this week, which will make big potatoes and roasting ears for Chemawa.

Mr. Barbour and Mr. Holder, of Shepherd and Holder, Real Estate firm, were visitors at the school Wednesday.

Mrs. Campbell leaves for her vacation the last of this week to spend it with her boys, Donald and Herbert, of Spokane.

Mr. W. P. Campbell left for Portland yesterday accompanying Mary, Sam and John McCush. Lizzie and Grace Beaver, Susie, Julia, Fannie, Lillie and Katie Walker, pupils, enroute to their homes for vacation.

Mrs. Olson, of Underwood, Wash., paid Chemawa a visit Wednesday relative to seeing the school and work done here. Mrs. Olson expressed much praise of the school and surroundings, and, as a result of her visit, we can shortly expect her niece and nephew, promising Indian pupils.

Mrs. Judge Goodell and lady friend from Valdez, Alaska, and Miss Helen Perkins, of Salem, were visiting the school Wednesday and were pleased to see many of their former charges enjoying the advantages that Chemawa alone can offer, being much impressed with the excellent educational facilities and work being done here.

Miss Irene Campbell, accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Judge, chaperone, leaves for "The Breakers" for ten days to attend the first Invitation Tennis Tournament held in the Northwest. Miss Campbell is entered in the ladies' singles, mixed doubles and ladies' doubles with Mrs.

Judge, and her many Chemawa friends look forward to her carrying off the honors in this, as she has in former events.

Clifford Gilman an ex-pupil of Chemawa, arrived here Tuesday from Portland and after a brief visit went back to the metropolis Wednesday. It is a little more than three years since he left the school and two of these years were spent in the Philippines as a member of the Fourth U. S. Cavalry band. After returning to the United States his regiment was stationed at Ft. Meade, South Dakota. A short time ago the term of his enlistment expired and he at once started for Portland, arriving there during the past week. He has acquired an exhaustive knowledge of the islands and tells his experiences in an entertaining manner. He likes the service and expects before long to enlist again.

AGAINST WHITE PLAGUE.

The following interesting article, recently published in the Oregonian, gives some idea of the steps taken to prevent the spread of tuberculosis:

"The medical profession and the laity as well should be interested in the International Congress on Tuberculosis, which will convene in Washington, D.C., from September 21, to October 12," said Dr. E. A. Pierce, yesterday, a physician who has done much in the fight against that disease in Oregon.

"The work of the Congress has attracted world-wide interest and enthusiasm. Mr. Roosevelt has accepted the presidency of the organization. Dr. E. L. Trudeau has been elected honorary president, while Vice-President Fairbanks, Speaker Cannon, and the Governors of many states will be vice-presidents. The committee from Germany alone numbers 150, among whom are Dr. Robert Koch, Dr. Emil von Behring, Dr. A. Frankel and Dr. Richard Neisser.

"In the tremendous struggle against this deadly disease the attention of the civilized world is now being directed. Every civilized nation, almost without
