

Left-Over Items

Antoine Francis had charge of the lawns.

Paschal George left for his home in Washington Monday morning.

George Horne went for a visit to his father in Portland, Monday morning.

Bessie Lahr left for her home in Montana Monday afternoon on the 3 o'clock train.

John Peazzoni and William Watkins left for their homes in California Monday evening.

Geo. Washoe and John McCush took some things to Salem for Mr. Enright Monday morning.

Thomas McCully went to Butteville, Wednesday, to accept a job of work for an indefinite period.

Joaquin Meadows and William Mose returned to Chemawa last week, after working for about a week in a sawmill near Albany, Oregon.

George Washoe, Joe Carrasco and Albert Samuels went over to Mission Bottom to repair a hop dryer for a well-known hop grower.

All the boys of company C were sorry to see their captain, Joe Wiggins, leave, but they all are in hopes that he will come back so that they can get in trim for the contest on next commencement for the cup.

Two crowds of boys left for the coast Monday morning, the first crowd containing boys of A and B companies, numbering 36 was lead by Mr. Larsen, and the second crowd containing boys of C company numbering 41 was lead by Mr. Enright.

LOCALS

The pears are more than plentiful and we will have our usual big crops of prunes.

Miss Caroline Koester is back from her vacation having passed it with relatives at Yreka, California.

Miss Royer arrived back at Chemawa Monday evening, having been away for a week or two on her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fickle arrived home Sunday from "Newport by the Sea," where they passed ten very pleasant days.

James R. Smith and Miss Elizabeth Luedka were married in Salem, August 13th, and have gone to Warm Springs, Oregon.

Mr. Arthur J. Watkins began his vacation yesterday. He will probably attend the regatta at Astoria. This is destined to be a most interesting affair.

A gang of 8 or 10 boys began work on the main sewer to the east of the school, Monday. They are under the supervision of Messrs. Venter and Fickle.

Reports from the pupils, who are enjoying an outing at the coast, in charge of Mr. Enright and Mr. Larsen, state that they are catching lots of mountain trout and are having an excellent time.

Blackberries are very plentiful this year. Chemawa will have record-breaking crops of apples and pears. We have more than a thousand apples trees, many of which will have to be propped up to keep the limbs from breaking.