

LOCALS

The girls are doing better work in the laundry and prove that they are learning.

Mr. Charles Larsen, Assistant Disciplinarian, is enjoying his vacation down the Columbia.

Putting up of sweet pickles for winter use has kept the kitchen force busy the early part of this week.

Mr. Thomas Gorden has been appointed Assistant Engineer of Chemawa and has entered upon his duties.

The Engineer boys had an enjoyable outing to Silver Creek Falls this week and report all kind of a good times.

Katie Underwood and her brother Corbett from Underwood, Wash were among the new pupils this week.

Caroline Wright's aunt is a school visitor during hop picking.

Mrs. Lucy Giles of Flathead is here on a visit to her children.

The laundry girls are glad to have the boys back from the coast.

The Misses Bigger of Portland and the Misses Pearce of Salem were the guests of Miss Irene Campbell on Monday.

Antoine Francis and Manuel Swanson have been working out in the country slashing brush for the past two weeks.

Albert Scott deserves a great deal of credit for the able manner in which he assists Mr. Westley in caring for the orchard and garden.

Photographer Loanfeldt of Salem has delivered as handsome a lot of pictures as Chemawa has ever obtained of her buildings and societies.

The Industrial departments are preparing exhibits for the Oregon State Fair which will be held the week commencing Sept. 14.

Mr. Edward Smith has been appointed Disciplinarian of Chemawa and has entered upon his duties, being transferred from the position of Assistant Engineer.

Word has been received from Warm Spring Agency that Harry Queachpalma, Walter Miller, Paul Queachpalma, Ben Wilson and several others will start for Chemawa shortly.

The rain last week has purified the atmosphere, made big potatoes and roasting ears, started the roses to bloom profusely again and freshened up things generally at Chemawa.

Last Saturday those of us at Chemawa who were so fortunate as to see it, saw the "handsomest rainbow ever" in the eastern sky. It was a complete double bow of vivid hue. Handsome hardly expresses it.

Chemawa has large crops of prunes, pears, potatoes and other vegetables this fall, and more apple than ever before in its history. About one thousand young apple trees came into bearing this fall and they are loaded with fruit; this assures a good bill of fare on the tables.

Among the changes in the employee force of Chemawa which went into effect the first of this month were: Miss Olive Skipton, dining room matron vice Mrs. Cox transferred to the Leupp school; Mrs. Katie L. Brewer, Cook, vice Mr. Cox transferred to the Leupp school; Mrs. Fickle, Asst. Seamstress (temporary) vice Miss Skipton promoted to Asst. Matron; Miss Antonnette White, teacher, vice Miss Luedke (now Mrs. Smith) transferred to Warm Spring.