FOOT-BALL

The prospects for a good team grows brighter ever day. More interest is being shown than has been shown for many a year, with a number of second year men and a good number of new men trying for places there is considerable rivalry—good friendly rivalry. Among the last year men we have Smoker, Graham, Sortor, Burke, Wilson, and Minesinger; from last year's second team we have Major, Gregory, Meadows, Scott, Anderson and Bateman, and the new men who are doing good work are Walton, Dillstrom, Francis Davis, Samuels, George, Matthews, Covington, Bain, French, Mason, Pellitier and La-Chapelle. Joe Charles of last year's second team is also making good.

This year games will be arranged with such teams as Albany College, Pacific University, South Portland Athletic Club, Albina Athletic Club, Bunker Hill Athletic Club, Whitworth College and others.

At a meeting held Wednesday evening by the boys it was decided to engage a coach and Mr. Philbrook, late of Whitman College, Washington, was mentioned as a likely candidate. Mr. Philbrook played tackle on his college team and
