

LOCALS

Ralph Allen has returned to school again.

The small boys are planning a Halloween party.

Mr. H. Mann went to Portland on business last week.

Mrs Fickle's detail is making table covers for Brewer Hall.

Miss Carter from Woodburn was visiting Miss Woods Sunday.

Mr. Westley's boys are digging 100 bushels of potatoes every day.

The gardeners are sowing the orchards with vetch for fertilizing purposes.

Mr. Westley is well liked by the laundry girls, because he is so liberal with the apples.

The little white cat at the small boys' home is doing good work with the rats and mice.

Miss Steponeck has moved into her new room and likes it much better than the old one.

Mr. Van Winkle, of Willamette Medical College, was a visitor at Chemawa Sunday.

Mrs. Newcomb and daughter have had their house keeping supplies moved out from Salem.

Lost—From the Tailor Shop, two pocket knives used for ripping purposes. Finder will please return to Tailor Shop. No questions asked.

Lee and Edward Evans and Archie Lane returned from Siletz last Friday.

Mr. Fickle has moved into the house keeping rooms down in the south cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Keeler from Montana are visiting their children. They are much pleased with the management of the school and intend leaving their little daughter when they depart for home.

The Mandolin Club was made happy by the purchase of several violins and mandolins to add to the instrumentation of the Club. The Club has become quite a musical feature of the school and under Mr. Turney's able instruction will soon be in the front rank.

In another column we gave an article "Notes from Chemawa," by Superintendent Charles W. Goodman of Phoenix. Superintendent Goodman recently visited Chemawa and his friends here were very glad to greet him and hope he may soon find occasion for another visit.

---

MUSIC NOTES

The choir was reorganized on Tuesday night.

Juanita Reyes is busy studying music every evening.

Christina Victor says she is interested in her music lessons.

Dollie Case will play the Double Bass in the Mandolin Club this year and she is doing well.

Miss Campbell is a very nice music teacher. We all enjoy taking music lessons from her.

Violet Edwards has joined the Mandolin Club and took her first lesson on Monday evening. We all wish her success.

The members of the mandolin Club are very enthusiastic this year. Under the direction of Mr. Turney we are sure they will do excellent work.