

told in the article in question. To us the wonder is why Toppenish can have saloons, located as it is in the heart of an Indian Reservation. It was ever thus and we suppose it will be to the end that the Indian will be used by the unscrupulous whites as "easy marks." The misfortune is that so many of the Indians consider this class of people as their best friends.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

BY PUPILS

Corbett Underwood is on the laundry detail.

Ellen Tohet is very good doing up collars and cuffs.

The new detail at the laundry is getting along nicely.

Caroline Wright is on Miss Skipton's detail and does nice work.

Manuel Swanson has repaired the orderly bell in the office.

The dressmakers are pleased to have Ida Johnson with them again.

Dennis Harnden and Eugene Anderson are wood haulers this week.

Edward Evans and Alex Arquette are repairing stools for the dining room.

James Evans is getting to be a very fine printer and takes much interest in his work.

The dairy boys butchered three steers Monday and have several more to slaughter when needed.

Fred Blodgett and Wallace Farrow are laying a steam pipe to the new gymnasium for heating purposes.

Many thanks are extended to Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Doherty for geraniums they gave for the dining room tables.

A table for visitors has been established in the dining room where all the school visitors are welcome to take their meals.

The blacksmiths have finished oiling the floor of the new gymnasium and are now applying parafine wax and polishing it.

Mrs. Brewer is doing excellent work in the kitchen. No better meals can be had any place on the grounds than at the school dining room.

The grls in the domestic science department are kept very busy preparing meals for the eighteen boys of the football team who are at the training table. The detail has changed at the domestic science department.
