FIRST BASKETBALL GAME.

The first basketball game was played in the new gymnasium Friday evening, when the first and second teams of last year played a fast game before the student body and employes. The new floor was somewhat slippery, which prevented the boys from doing their best work.

This being the first time they were together this year, the manner in which they handled the ball goes to show that there is excellent material for a winning team this year.

Supt. Chalcraft and Asst. Supt. Campbell played center for the first ball tossed.

Wilson was the score bringer for the first team. Smoker and Williams threw the baskets for the second team.

The line-up was as follows:

1st.		2nd.
Wilson	F	Souvier	F
Clark	F	Williams	F
Sortor	C	Dillstrom	C
Wiggins	G	Lewis	G
Darnell	G	Smoker	G

Fifteen minute halves were played, the first team winning by a score of 10 to 8.

Referee, J. M. Teabo; Time-keeper, E. Williams.

LOCALS

We have had ideal weather this week.

The Second team will meet the Oregon City High, Dec. 12, at Chemawa.

A letter was received from Clifford Gilman who wishes to be remembered by his friends.

George Kross and Andy Walker from Puyallup were among the new pupils enrolled this week.

The second team will meet the Junction City High team tomorrow at Chemawa. As the Junction City boys have played Halsey High, Corvallis High and Oregon Second scoreless games our second will have to play ball from start to finish to win.

Some of the boys of the Battalion have been changed around from one
