

company to another. The companies will now be according to height, the tallest boys in Company A and so on down. The officers of Company A have also moved up "one notch."

SOCIETIES

Y. M. C. A.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. held their usual interesting meeting Wednesday evening. President Eugene Williams conducted the meeting, which was largely attended. Several young men joined the association. The speakers of the evening were Loulin Brewer, Albert Garry and Eugene Williams. The subject was, "Our Religious Duties." Walter Haight and Joseph Dillstrom were elected to represent the association at the ninth annual Convention of Oregon and Idaho, which takes place at McMinnville, Friday, Dec. 4, to Sunday, Dec. 6. The programme was as follows: Song, "Rock of Ages," members; Prayer, Albert Garry; Song, "Jesus is Calling;" "Our Religious Duties," Loulin Brewer, Albert Garry and Eugene Williams; Song, "At the Cross;" Business discussion; Prayer, Walter Haight.

Progressive.

The Progressive Society met in room No. 6 last Thursday. The secretary called the roll and there being a few members absent after the roll was called and there being no old business we went on to elect the following officers: President, Albert Scott; Vice-President, Geo. Horne; Secretary, Moses Alvarado; Sergeant-at-arms, Ernest David; Treasurer, Ed. Evans; Reporter, John Miller. A few of the officers gave short speeches. We then heard a few remarks from the critic. There being no program, we adjourned.

Brevities

Fred Wright is working at the baker shop.

There are lots of new pupils coming to school.—L. D.

Jennie Luke says she is going to learn dressmaking.—V. B.

There will be some new pupils coming from California next month.—J. H.

Mr. Bowen and his force of boys are setting out rose sprouts over at the Sanitarium.

Matilda Gibeau is now cooking for the football boys and she is doing some fine cooking.—A. B.

Some of the girls went for a walk last Sunday chaperoned by Miss White and Miss Bender.—N. S.

James Joe says he likes his work in the garden very well. He is one of the best workers in the garden.—H. J.

The painters have finished the first coat of oil in the new gym. and will soon be ready to put on the hard oil finish.

The engineer boys are now laying the steam pipe in their instruction room. All are anxious to know who will put the first fire in the new boiler.

The sewing room girls are almost through with the McBride Hall girls' new uniform dresses. Soon they will start on the small girls' uniforms, which will be easier to make.

The sewing room girls began drafting this week. Each girl has her drafting day. On Monday, Katie Henry; Tuesday, Clara Guyette; Wednesday, Matilda John; Thursday, Alice Bettles; Friday, Ida Johnson.