

LOCALS

A number of girls spent Saturday in Salem.

William Ingram was out from the Asylum farm Friday.

Ppilih Sorahan and Reuben Saunders were visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith made a flying trip to Salem Monday morning.

Mrs. R. G. Henderson was in town Monday getting Christmas presents.

Miss Mary Olive Skipton attended the Elks' Memorial Services in Salem, Sunday.

Mrs. Brewer and kitchen detail are busy making fruit cakes, etc., for Christmas.

Ernest Brewer returned to his Tacoma home this week. He expects to return for Christmas.

Quite a number of employes and pupils were in Salem Saturday on a shopping tour.

Mrs. R. G. Henderson is busy making some dainty aprons and other needlework for Christmas.

Miss Miller, formerly a teacher at Chemawa, is now appointed teacher at the Ft. Simcoe Indian School.

Chas. Larsen, Mr. Bowen, Henry Dillström and Ernest Brewer attended the "Land of Nod" in Salem Saturday evening.

The gardeners, farmers, dairy boys, and industrial boys are all happy with their duck coats, boots and gloves for outside work.

Alice Chalcraft looks forward with a great deal of pleasure and anticipation to her trip to Portland with her Auntie during Christmas holidays.

Mrs. E. A. Smith was an enthusiastic spectator at the football game last Saturday. Her friends wonder why she stayed on the grand stand instead of on the side lines.—Anon.

Mr. Sanderson, connected with The Salem Statesman, was a visitor at Chemawa Tuesday and spent the day in looking over the school plant and the work done.

Mr. Lowenfelt took some good pictures of the football team Tuesday morning and Tuesday afternoon. The boys all seemed to enjoy moving the grandstands around so as to get a view of the grid-iron, etc.

Mr Moran, chief engineer, raised a fund among the thirty or forty engineering apprentices for the purpose of subscribing for various magazines, etc., for use in the new instruction room in the power house now almost completed.

Eight new mirrors were issued to the boys' quarters, Mitchell Hall, this week. The following day eight bureaus without mirrors were issued to the girls' quarters, McBride Hall. The old standing joke about girls and mirrors certainly must be going out of fashion.

The blacksmiths have received four new aprons from the harness shop.

We are looking foward to an entertainment to be given by a newly organized club of young men from Brewer Hall.

A number of girls went to Salem Saturday and were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Fickle. All report having had a very nice time.
