

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

BY PUPILS

William Flett is the latest helper on the Kitchen detail.

Haynes Bateman is busy all week repairing shoes.

Pedro Chevio and Mrs. Lipart made mince meat, Monday.

Edward Ainsworth is making a sink for Mr. Fickle's cottage.

Frank Pratrovitch made a picture frame for Alex Cajete.

Paul Queahpalma is repairing the seats in the school hack.

The wagonmakers made three pressing boards for the tailor shop.

Paul Queahpalma fixed up his brother's clock at Mitchell Hall.

The dairymen are blowing out stumps in the lot behind the garden.

Ruther Jake was in the shoe shop repairing his shoes last Tuesday.

The farmers are busy plowing, harrowing and planting at the lower farm.

Walter Miller and Manuel Swanson are the wood haulers to the engine room this week.

Ralph Allen was around last Monday fixing up some broken places in the cement sidewalks.

A new stove has been placed in the blacksmith shop and it is a fine thing these cold mornings.

Henry Shaw, James Moses and Clifford Rolf are the new baker boys who entered on duty last week.

Mr. Moran with his force of boys were seen fixing up the large engine in the power house last Tuesday.

Alex Lee and Frank Pratrovitch put two new windows in the small boys' home in place of some old ones.

There can not be very much doing at the sewing rooms this week for neither one could give us reporters a single item.

Amos Smoker is the principle outside worker on the farm. Last week he helped Mr. Smith with some special work and this week he is helping Mr. Cooper.

The gardeners are busy pruning trees, burning brush, delivering potatoes, beets, parsnips, carrots, apples, and all such other vegetables that are raised in this country at this time of the year.

The reporter on entering the harness shop found William Burk and Seymour Goady busy making hame tugs. And the rest of the harnessmakers were working as fast as they could.

VIOLIN AND PIANO RECITAL.

The School was agreeably entertained, with a violin and piano recital on Monday evening by Mr. Ruthyn Turney, assisted by Miss Gertrude Brewer. Miss Brewer's interpretation of Rubinstein's Kamennoi-Ostrow delighted the audience while Mr. Turney's selections were listened to with wrapt attention by all. The only regret was the shortness of the program which was as follows:

1. Kamennoi-Ostrow - - - Rubinstein
2. Sonata No. 8 - - - - - Mozart
Allegro Vivace, Andante Sostenuto, Allegro.
3. Grand Fantasie - - - - - Turney
4. Legende - - - - - Wieniawski
5. (a) Traumerei - - - - - Schumann
(b) Bagpipe - - - - - Turney
(c) Romance de Lucrece Borgia, Artot
(d) Mazurka di Concert - - - - - Musin
