

AN APPRECIATED COURTESY.

Mr. George Johnson, of G. W. Johnson & Co., 141 Commercial St., Salem, entertained the entire body of students from Chemawa on their visit to that city, Wednesday, by engaging the Electric Theatre for their especial occupancy from 9:30 to 11:30 A. M. This was free to all school children and it was also opened for this especial purpose. This was a courtesy and a kindness which will not soon be forgotten by those of our people, be they young or old. In behalf of the school The American extends thanks to Mr. Johnson and wishes him A Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

CUTTING TABLE CLIPPINGS.

Patsy Barrett is the best trouser maker in the tailor shop. So said Eddie Frelander.

Arthur VanPelt was the leader of the masquerade party from the tailor shop. So said Patsy Barrett.

The boys in the tailor shop are busy mending the holes in their socks anticipating a visit from Santa Claus?

Clarence Bardwell and Andrew Bittles visited the tailor shop for the purpose of pressing their "peg tops".

Mr. A. H. Ford, a noted traveler, lecturer and magazine writer, visited Chemawa during the week. At present Mr. Ford is making his home at Honolulu, Hawaii, and speaks of the islands as the Paradise of the earth. In all things connected with Hawaii the gentleman is exceptionally well informed. He has circled the globe three times in his travels and is now on his fourth trip around old earth. His extensive travels have enhanced an already bright personality and made Mr. Ford a most interesting and companionable gentleman. We regret that his visit at Chemawa was necessarily so brief.
