

never delaying the game. Dillstrom and Queachpalma were specially strong in this half and made even more effective gains in this half than they did in the first.

Two more touchdowns were negotiated during this half, but Graham could not control the slippery ball and failed to kick both goals. Two blocked punts had much to do with Chemawa's touchdowns, Graham's long run coming after one of these.

The line-up was as follows:

Chemawa,	C. Y. M. C.
Larsen.....	R E L. Zander, Patty
Dillstrom.....	R T L. Barr, O'Neill
LaChapelle.....	R G L. Carroll, Burns
Smith.....	C..... Klump
Major.....	L G R..... Dueber
Burke.....	L T R..... Quilan
Wilson.....	L H R..... Knock
Sonvigner.....	Q B..... Crowley
Sortor, Minesinger.....	R H L..... Gianelli
Graham (c).....	L H R..... Hatch(c.)
Queachpalma.....	F B..... Hall, Barr

Referee—Heckenberry. Umpire—Dowling. Head linesman—Moore.

Barr, the Catholic fullback, was the only man on the team who could be said to have played any kind of ball. He was in the game trying all the time but as he had little support from the other men in the back field could do but little toward gaining ground. Once or twice he made three or four yards but lack of interference laid him open to the first Chemawa man he came to and of course he soon stopped. Crowley did fairly well at some times in running in punts but spoiled his good work by running back twice in succession and by the mediocre punting that he did in the second half.

LOCALS

Father Datin celebrated mass in our chapel on Christmas morning.

Santa Claus' prophecy in regard to our football game at Portland was correct, wasn't it?

Mr. Oliver Gibeau of Montana is here visiting his children, Lizzie, Mary and Matilda Gibeau.

Santa Claus was a little late about bringing his presents this year, but they all got on the tree in time.

Our Christmas music was repeated on Sunday night when Mr. Goudge preached a Christmas sermon to the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Miss Irene, Mrs. Smith, Miss Bender and Mr. Ernest Brewer accompanied the football team to Portland on Saturday.

The chapel services on Christmas morning were unusual impressive. The program was short but well prepared and rendered. The singing of "Glory to God in the Highest, and on earth peace good Will to men" by the school was especially effective.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Miss Irene attended the wedding of Miss Leona Hirsch of Salem to Mr. Richard Brady of Rhode Island on Monday night at the Willamette Hotel. The friends of Miss Hirsch at Chemawa extend their congratulations and best wishes for her future happiness.
