

LOCALS

Philip Sorahan was a visitor Sunday.

Rube Saunders was out from Salem Sunday.

Tracy Hatch was a visitor at Mr. Cooper's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Petite are here on a visit with their children.

Silas Moon from Tacoma, Wash., is visiting at Chemawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Rainville spent Christmas here with their children.

Robert Sampson and Barney Vincent returned to school last week.

James Stewart, Class of '85, visited at Chemawa for a few days.

Fifty students accompanied the football team to Portland Saturday.

Misses Hattie and Nora Mann are spending their Christmas vacation at Chemawa with their parents.

Joseph Teabo and Charles Cutter did the most rooting for Chemawa at the football game at Portland last Saturday.

Miss Irene Howard spent Christmas with Miss Skipton. They ate dinner at the Employes' Club where a fine banquet was served.

Frank Ward, from Tacoma Wash., McGaw Kahama, from Tacoma, Isador Ferris, from Orleans, California, Nicholas Hatch from Alaska were admitted last week.

The tailor shop intends to purchase a basketball by subscription in order that we may obtain the necessary practice for the inter-school basketball championship game.

A social gathering took place in the gymnasium Monday evening. The band furnished music for the grand marches. Different games were played during the intervals of the marches. Mr. Larsen was floor manager and conducted the gathering in a manner which made the evening one of enjoyment to all who attended.

The following former students and graduates from Chemawa attended the football game in Portland Saturday: Asa Bagnell, '05; Clifford Gillman, stationed at Vancouver Barracks with the 14th Infantry band; Reuben Saunders, '99; Henry Bertram, Silas Moon, Charles Cutter, Chase Wiggins, William Towner, Joseph Teabo, '91, and Earnest Brewer of Tacoma, Washington.

Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Brewer, a surprise party was given in honor of the anniversary of Mrs. Teabo's birthday. Those who were present on the occasion can harbor no doubt regarding the genuineness of the surprise. Mirth, music and merriment were on every hand and just before the time for departure some most tempting refreshments were served. In every way the "surprise" was enjoyable for all present.

---

Charles Hunter is working in the harness shop.

The shoe shop always has a supply of old shoes on hand for repairs and Haines Bateman is kept busy.

The blacksmiths are busy ironing off wagons and doing repair work for the different departments.