

PUPILS' ITEMS

Mr. Brown is still busy drilling the new well.

The pupils are enjoying the basketball games.

The girls' basketball team received a new ball this week.

Fred Choquette is now fireman for the school building.

The Junior Class are having their examination this week.

Raymond Ready is now a sweeper at the small boys' home.

The Mitchell Hall boys are all glad they will soon move in again.

Roy Wilson and Roy McIntyre are the wood haulers at the wood shed.

The fittings for the large pump have arrived and will be connected soon.

The Carpenters are nearly done putting the picture molding up in Mitchell Hall.

Manuel Swanson, assisted by Brown Jones, put radiators in Mitchell Hall this week.

Katie and Corbett Underwood spent their Christmas in Portland with their sister.

John Brown and Fred Acosta are the wood haulers this week for John Shakley, the fireman.

Mary Gregory is learning fast how to cook and she likes her place of work at the Teachers' Club.

We are all glad to welcome Genevieve Comer to Chemawa where she will make her pleasant home.

Matilda John is making a very pretty green dress for Lela Jackson. Matilda is one of our neatest dressmakers at Chemawa.

During last week Elmer Sorahan could be seen at any hour of the day in his room studying for the quarterly examination.

During the cold nights Mr. Westley appointed two boys to sit in the root house and keep a good warm fire to keep the potatoes from freezing.

The boys of the senior class were working at the wood shed yesterday afternoon, there being no school for them on account of Mrs. Campbell going to Portland.

The following were the games played in the basketball league this week: On January 3, Harnessmakers against Dairyboys; Harnessmakers won by a score of 19 to 10. Tailors against Carpenters; Tailors won, score 19 to 18. January 4, Blacksmiths 23, vs. Gardeners 9; Brewer Hall 50 vs. Farmers 6. The cooks and the Brewer Hall housekeepers have just been admitted in the league.

CONCERT.

On the evening of January 1st the following splendid concert program was played by the band under the direction of Mr. C. E. Larsen:

March—"Blocker"	Southwell
Overture—"Impromptu"	Dalbey
Baritone Solo—"Execution"	Southwell
Frank Pratrovitch.
Cornet Quartette—"Row, Boatman, Row,"
"The Whip-Poor-Will Song"
Messrs. Chalcraft, Teabo, Clements, Larsen,
Medley Overture—"Round the World"
.....arr by Mackie Bayer.
Overture—"The Sky Pilot"	Laurens.
March
Two-Step—"Southern Smiles"	E. Ke