

A Fourth of July

(Continued from page 1)

8:30 p. m. It was held in Grant Eastman's hall and was free to all. The music was furnished by the Neah Bay brass band.

PROGRAM AND PRIZES.

First-class horse race, won by Hal Gorget, Quileute, prize $15; second prize won by Johnson Black, Quileute, $10; second-class horse race, won by Thompson Black, Quileute, $10; second prize won by Dewey Cleveland, Quileute, $5; whaling canoe race, won by Neah Bays, $15; second prize won by Quileutes, $10; first-class foot-race, won by Ernest Obi, Quileute, $10; second prize won by M. Luke, Neah Bay, $5; girls' first-class foot-race, won by Ruth Anderson, Neah Bay, $2; second prize won by Eunice Obi, Quileute, $1; running broad jump, won by Ernest Obi, Quileute, $3; second-class foot-race, won by Gus Bowchops, Neah Bay, $3; second prize won by Jonah Cole, Quileute, $1.50; fat man's race, won by Ollie Smith, Quileute, $1.50; second prize won by Esau Penn, Quileute, $1; ca/sized canoe race won by W. and A. Jackson, Quileute, and Neah Bay, $3; second prize won by Wm. Penn and Chas. Saille, Quileutes, $1.50; pole vaulting, won by F. Freemont Bennett, Quileute, $2; second prize won by Morton Penn, Quileute, $1; "shinny" game, won by Quileutes, $5; sack race, won by R. Raymond Ward, Quileute $1.50; second prize won by Dan White, Mora, $1; wrestling match, tie, $6.

Girls' race, won by May Hudson, Quileute, $1; second prize won by Kate Jackson, Quileute, 50 cents; boys' race, won by Fred Penn, Quileute, $1; second prize won by Fred Anderson, Neah Bay, 50 cents; river canoe race, won by Quileute white man, $4; second prize won by white man, $2; three-legged race, won by Frank and Ernest, $2; swimming race, won by Luke Hobucket, Quileute, $2; second prize won by Arthur Jackson, Neah Bay, $1.

JOHNSON BLACK,
FREMONT BENNETT.

Quileute Day School,
LaPush, Wash.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

BY PUPILS

Robert Sampson spliced the cable for the stump puller.

Haines DeWitt has made a battery for the printing office.

Peter Bushman is making traces this week in the harness shop.

James Minesinger has entered the blacksmithing department.

Walter Miller is the morning engineer. Manuel Swanson is fireman.

William Burke is working on hame tugs in the harness making department.

Allen McGibbons and George Horn churned Monday in the dairy department.

May Evans is sewing white braid on the uniforms in the dressmaking department.

Work is a little behind in the laundry on account of the lack of steam and the broken washer.

Paul Queahpalma, James Olney, and James Minesinger repaired the lid to the washers in the laundry.