

PUPILS' ITEMS

We all like our new teacher in the second grade.—J. H.

We are all glad to welcome Grace Carson back to school again.—L. W.

I work in the dining hall. I like to work there, it is a nice place.—M. A.

I am glad the snow has gone away. We are having rain in Chemawa now.—J. M.

Miss Royer took her eighth grade class for a picnic and they had a lovely time.—M. M.

Christina Lane will soon have her new mandolin. She will then join the mandolin club.

Minnie Piute, is making a pretty bead necktie for her friend. She will finish it Wednesday.—M. D.

The band boys are all sorry to see Walter Miller in the hospital; he is our baritone player.—J. E.

Christina Victor is working a pretty embroidery doily, which she will soon have finished.—E. F.

Grace and Rachel Carson of Toledo, Oregon, have returned to school after two years' vacation.—A. R. M.

We will soon have the pleasure of seeing the Che-en-tra Club appear again with a very interesting program.—T. M.

I am learning engineering; I am learning to read; I learn something every day. I like to go to school every day.—A. S.

Mrs. M. E. Theisz inspects the rooms of McBride Hall twice a day; we are sure that the girls all have clean rooms.

The sewing room girls were favored with a treat of candy by Miss Brown, Monday. All enjoyed the treat very much.—M. G.

All three of the boilers are now connected on to the new 80 ft. smoke stack, and they have taken the old smoke stack down.—T. A.

Rena Mann is getting along fine with her violin. She commenced taking lessons a year ago and is playing in the mandolin club.—S. M. B.

I am a boy with a head on; I can run and play and jump, and I can walk, too. David Penny works in the blacksmith shop. I can see him working there.—C. C.

Miss Royer and Mr. Turney took the Mandolin Club girls out to coast on Thursday. All reported having a good time and certainly enjoyed coasting.—V. E.

Talk about hauling cord wood, and talk about it being a fine job to be the conductor on the G. O & P line on a stormy day! Go to Carasco and Moss for information.—P. A. M.

Hazel Butler's friends were all very glad to see her back at school. She arrived Monday evening to everybody's surprise, as she did not intend to come back when she left.—H. H.

Last Monday afternoon Lee Evans went into the blacksmith shop and made his initials. Did your iron burn?—B. S.

Clara Guyette is expecting her grandma soon from Wapato, Wash.—M. M.

Louise Johnson and Maggie Wynaco are taking the greatest interest in their training at the hospital. They are now learning to take temperatures. After work hours when they go back to McBride Hall they take each other's temperature to see if they have any fever.—V. S.
