

LOCALS

Della Romeo was admitted to school last week.

Pretty girls and pretty clothes at the Valentine party!

Mr. and Mrs. Mann went to Portland, Monday, on business.

Mrs. Campbell spent Saturday night with friends in Salem.

Mrs. Bullard treated the nurse girls to taffy Sunday evening.

Who Scrubbed the auditorium floor for the Valentine party?

Henry Dillstrom made a flying trip to Salem, Monday evening.

We have a fine picture of Abraham Lincoln in the chapel now.

Joe Dillstrom did some fine card painting for the Valentine party.

We didn't see the Junior colors at the Valentine party. Why not?

The school line has been very poor this week. Officers, attention!

Mrs. Teabo treated her kitchen girls with candy Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Brewer went to Tacoma last Saturday to attend to some business affairs.

Andrew and Len Cave from McMinnville arrived last week to attend school.

What was the social event of the season? The Senior-Junior party, of course.

Who said that the president of the Senior Class looked very handsome at the party?

Reuben Saunders was a visitor from Tacoma, Sunday. After a short stay he returned to Tacoma.

Mena, Thomas and Valentine Reddell returned to school last week after spending a few months at home.

Miss Troutman is very kind about lending her plants for the purpose of decorating the chapel. We all appreciate her generosity.

The Senior and Junior classes desire to thank Miss Irene Campbell and Miss Noble for the delicious sandwiches which they made for the party.

Miss Leader, the new teacher, is teaching the 2nd grade. Margaret Lowry and Belle Dillstrom are teaching the youngest children—part of Miss Dohse's class.

Who is it plays the violin so well in McBride Hall? We thought it was Mr. Turney until we saw him walking towards McBride Hall while the music was going on.

In a letter to the American we see that our Miss Patrick is now Mrs. Lillian Patrick Black. Her present address is Port Gibson, Mississippi. Her many friends at Chemawa wish her much happiness.

The athletic "dope" sent out by the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific-Exposition to date is nothing but boosting the University of Washington. We have nothing against the University of Washington, but we suggest, if success is what they are after, that is hardly the way to secure it. After a while it nauseates.

Short addresses by the following persons were made at the party: Supt. Chalcraft, Asst. Supt. Campbell, Mr. Pickering, Mrs. Pickering, Mrs. Chalcraft, Miss Campbell, Robert Cameron, Fortunato Jayme, Harry Queachpalma, Haynes DeWitt, Ella Brewer, Nora Mann, Hattie Mann, Henry Dillstrom.
