

LOCALS

Miss Hatty Mann is taking music lesson at the Sacred Heart Academy in Salem and is getting along nicely.

Tracey Hatch was a visitor from Salem, Sunday. Tracey had his camera along and took several pictures.

Theodore Schelikoff, who has been attending the Carlisle Indian School for a few years, enrolled at Chemawa last week.

Miss Gertrude Brewer was taken ill suddenly Sunday evening and for several days was in a serious condition, but is now convalescent.

Miss Sybil Woodward, daughter of the editor of the Newberg Graphic, was the guest of Miss Gertrude Brewer during several days of last week.

Mr. Tom Barkley, brother of Mrs Mann, and Mr. Jeff Riddle, Modoc interpreter, both from Klamath Agency, were visitors Friday. They returned Sunday morning.

William Blodget, a former student of Chemawa, has opened a tailoring establishment at Puyaliup, Washington. William learned his trade at Chemawa, and we all wish him great success.

Dennis Harnden is training hard every day for his match with Osmond Bridge, the light heavy weight wrestler of Bellingham, Wash. The match will take place the fore part of next month. Bridge is a good man and Dennis expects a hard battle.

Miss Ella E. Hirsch of Salem came out on Saturday afternoon and stayed until Monday evening with Mrs. Campbell. Miss Hirsch is always enthusiastic over Chemawa and enjoys the games and the school life here very much. We are all glad to see her.

Mr. Sam Owen, wife and daughter, of Portland, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell on Saturday and were interested spectators of the basketball game in the afternoon. Mr. Owen has many friends at Chemawa who were pleased to see him and pleased to meet his family.

The C. S. E. U. held a meeting last Tuesday for the purpose of electing officers. The following were elected: Thomas McCully, president; Dennis Harnden, vice-president; Manuel Swanson, secretary; Philp Moss, treasurer; Eugene Anderson, sargent-at-arms and Thomas Mullings, reporter.

The C. S. E. U. have organized a basketball team. They are practicing daily and expect to walk away with the championship honors of the school. Games are arranged with the following teams, the dates to be settled by the captains and office; taken in order: Cooks, Dairy-men, Gardeners, Carpenters, Plumbers and Farmers.

Elmer Henry is chief engineer in the morning this week.

Lyall Woodley is on the repairing detail of the power house.

Frank Rosenberg packed the main pump in the deep well. The pump has been leaking for some time.

The instruction room at the engineering department is a great improvement. The cyclopedias of engineering, engineering magazines, and black board work, is a great help to the department.
