

LOCALS

Vernie Cliff sang a beautiful song at Miss Campbell's recital on Monday evening.

Why is it that some of the Senior class have too little school spirit to write one item for the American?

The manner in which the band boys march to and from their meals cannot be excelled by any other company of the battalion.

Mr. James Brewer, who was called from Tacoma, Wash., on account of the serious illness of his niece, Miss Gertrude Brewer, returned to his home Sunday.

The lad who broke the "keep on the walk" sign on the lawn near the dining hall entrance was one of the fellows from the Band or A Company who have got into the habit of walking backwards from their meals.

Mr. Fleming, our congenial football coach, was out from Salem last Monday on real estate business. If you need any "coaching" on the buying of property or have any for sale see Mr. Fleming and he will consider your best interests and satisfy your wants.

Athletic

The gymnasium is in use from early in the morning until late at night. The several different basket ball teams keep the floor warm by taking turns at practice.

The wrestling hall is crowded every night with different employes to see the game which is new to Chemawa. The boys who are fast developing into wrestlers under the instruction of Dennis Harnden are Henry Dillstrom, David Graham, Edward Lynch, Orin French, Amos Smoker, William Moose, Phillip Moss, Ralph Allen and Alvin Follock.

MUSICAL RECITAL

The musical recital by Miss Irene Campbell's piano pupils on Monday evening was well rendered and the efforts of the young ladies was fully appreciated by the audience and reflected great credit upon the performers and their instructor. With the exception of Dollie Case and Esther Napoleon, the pupils are all beginners, having taken their first piano lessons within the last four months. We have Mandolin Club concerts, band concerts, and other musical concerts, but a program of this nature is a new feature, and with such talent displayed by these beginners, there is promise of good pianists and more music at Chemawa in the future.
