NOTICE.

Parents of pupils will confer a great favor on the school if, when they change their address, they will notify the Superintendent. A great many of our pupils' letters to their parents are returned on account of the official address being incorrect, due to the school not being notified of the change of address. If this is observed it will be a great convenience to the school and satisfaction to parents and relatives in receiving the letters of their children.

LATE BREVITIES.

New onions in the school garden.

Guess who gave us a bunch of violets.

Miss Skipton spent Sunday in Portland.

Meditation Hall is being elevated several feet for sanitation.

Chemawa is patting herself on what she expects Harnden will do tomorrow night.

Mr. Mudge and his detail put new ventilators in the foundation of the office.

Mr. Westley and his garden boys are getting the seed potatoes ready for planting.

Mr. Gordon and the plumber boys put in drains under the walk in front of Brewer Hall.

Joe Wiggins makes a very good captain for any company. Other officers are sprucing up also.

Mr. Bowen and his detail cleaned out the moss from the school lawns, this week, it being a difficult job.

Mr. Larsen is very busy this week operating the wood saw, and having charge of the woodshed crew.

Mr. Smith and a force of boys cleaned up the athletic field, and removed all evidences of the great 1908 football battles.

The battalion of over 360 boys is a pleasure to look upon; the boys all in full uniform, shoes polished and hair well trimmed.

Mr. Woods and his force of carpenters are now working on the old hospital, and are also busy making transoms covered with galvanized wire screen for Brewer Hall.

Mr. Hulden, formerly wagonmaker at Chemawa, is now in Montana earning $4.75 a day. We like to hear this, as Mr. Hulden was a good faithful employe while here.

An up-to-date barber shop has recently been installed in room No. 3 adjoining Mr. Smith's office, for the benefit of all the boys of the school. Robert Gregory is the efficient barber who is in charge of the same during work hours. When a boy needs the barber's services, Mr. Smith gives him a printed request for a hair cut, and the result of this work is very noticeable in the battalion.
