

LOCALS

Robert Cameron is foreman of the woodshed crew.

Supt. Chalcraft made a flying trip to Salem, Monday.

The laundry is doing up Brewer Hall window curtains this week.

The boys were reseated in the dining room Sunday evening.

Miss DeLong and Mr. Rhodes were the guests of Miss Woods, Sunday.

Jesse Spencer from Yakima, Wash., came last Monday to visit his sisters.

The laundry detail has changed and the old detail went to the dressmaking department.

Engene Williams oiled the floors of Mr. Smith's office and the barber shop a few days ago.

The tailors' basket ball suits were washed in the laundry last week and will be pressed in the tailor shop.

Several new rules have gone into effect which will improve the discipline of the different companies of the battalion.

Joseph Teabo received a card from Jack Upham, better known as "Longboat," who is now visiting friends in New Port, Wash. Jack is getting along nicely.

Tommie Case, quarter-master in Mitchell Hall, holds a very responsible position. The clothes-bag system is a great improvement over the old method of handling the clothes which are issued by Thomas every week.

J. W. Reynolds, clerk of the Flathead

Agency, Montana, arrived Friday evening with the following boys and girls: Oswald Tellsman, Joe Garidge, Ed and Paul Pichette. Ed Morrigneau, Ed Finley, and Victoria and Agnes Ladoraute.

YAKIMA INDIAN SCHOOL NEWS (by the pupils)

We have two ball teams.—A. S.

We have socials on Friday night.—L. E.

Ella Lilly works in the laundry this month.—K. G.

All the girls went walking Monday afternoon.—L. W.

In Sunday School we get a good collection now.—I. L.

The boys have raised over six dollars for ball suits.—J. S.

Mr. Robelin, a special agent, came on Tuesday. He is a big man.—W. A.

Mr. McKenzie and Mr. Swartz went to Toppenish last Saturday.—G. W.

Spring is coming and the flowers are beginning to bloom.—C. D. and S. A.

Some of the little girls went for a walk Monday and rolled down the big hill.—E.

Mr. Hill talked about carpentry Wednesday night, and the doctor about veins.—J. M.

Monday was Washington's birthday. We had a holiday and an entertainment at night.—N. S. E.

Mrs. Cloutier had company Wednesday. One of her pupils, Robert Davis, visited Ft. Simcoe.—E. A.

Columbus Sam went to visit his parents on Wednesday. Mr. Robelin went to N. Yakima on Wednesday.—C. T.

Mary Corville went home to visit her parents. She left Ft. Simcoe, Saturday afternoon and returned Wednesday noon.—T. H.