

LOCALS

Mr. Joseph Dick from Puyallup is here visiting.

Mr. Larsen has taken Mr. Watkin's place as night watchman.

Mr. "Grippe" is making his rounds with his usual record of cases.

Professor Newberry of Salem was a Chemawa visitor on Wednesday.

The teachers and students are making preparations for the school garden.

Joseph Moss is now the youngest apprentice in the engineering department.

The quarterly examinations are finished and the averages are exceptionally fine.

Mr. Campbell is expecting his son, Donald, and wife from Spokane, Wash., in the near future.

Mrs. H. E. Mann, who was confined in the St. Marys hospital for the past week, is at home again getting along nicely.

Ernest Brewer, after being here a few weeks on account of the illness of his sister, Gertrude, returned to his farm in Tacoma, Washington, Monday morning.

Mr. W. H. Lerchen of Portland, representing the W. P. Fuller Company, was a Chemawa visitor on Wednesday together with the traveling representative of the same company.

Joseph Teabo and Dennis Harnden went to Portland to witness the wrestling match between the Washington State College and Multnomah club. Multnomah won the match.

Mr. Mann went to Portland last Saturday and returned on the six o'clock train with Mrs. Mann, who was wheeled to their cottage in an invalid chair on account of illness. She is recovering fast and will soon be able to be about again.

Mr. Westley states that he has three acres of young onions ready for use and is now furnishing the student body at the rate of three messes a week. He also has a large crop of greens ready for use, radishes, lettuce, peas, potatoes and all early vegetables are in the ground.

A boys' meeting was called Monday evening in Chapel for the purpose of giving the boys information on discipline. Supt. Chalcraft, Asst. Supt. Campbell, Disciplinary Smith, Mr. Woods and Mr. Enright spoke some valuable words in an understanding manner to attentive listeners which has made a noticeable change in the discipline of the battalion.

Charles Walton, a pupil of Chemawa, was drowned at Tualatin last Sunday while attempting to cross the river in an old boat without oars. His body was returned to the school the same evening and burial from the school chapel took place on Monday afternoon, Reverend Goudge preaching the funeral sermon. His death came as a shock to the school. He was a member of the Nesika Club and of the football squad.

The ex-Chemawans located at Baird Fisheries, California, have formed a baseball team and the line-up is as follows: Joseph Campbell, C; John Stacy, P; J. Cravens, SS; Thomas Young, 1 B; Horace G. Campbell, 2 B; Ed. Davis, 3 B; Francis Firlotte, R F; Morris Alexander, C F; Ed. Alexander, L F. All the above being ex-Chemawans excepting Craven and Morris Alexander. They have already played two games, winning one of them.