

PUPILS' ITEMS

Harry Jones is the poet of the Junior class.

We are all glad to see the strawberries in blossom.

We are all glad to have monthly entertainments.—F. F.

Bell Dillstrom is doing some fancy work for the fair at Seattle.

The farm boys are very busy plowing down on the lower farm.—H. S.

Joe McCorkle and Samuel Wewa have entered the fifth grade.—H. R.

Arthur Steel, Mrs. Campbell's orderly, brings her white violets every day.

The sewing room girls are ready to start on the girls' summer uniforms.

Some of the flower beds around the academic building are being planted.

We are glade that Mrs. Mann is improving and hope to see her out soon.

Some of the third grade boys went out to pick flowers for our teacher.—R. B.

Ask the Juniors how they like partial payment, and time and bank discount.

This week the Engineers are preparing boilers No. 3. for the new front.—A. F. J.

Hannah Holiday is working in the hospital kitchen and likes it very much.

The boys are practicing hard for final try-out for the baseball team this season.

We are all glad to see Grace Benjamin and Eva Seymore in Chemawa.—B. M.

Miss Royer took some girls out for a nice walk in the woods Sunday afternoon.

Maud Petite is making a dress for one of the little girls and she is making it nicely.

Examinations were finished last week, and this week the pupils are preparing exhibit work.

The band is practicing marches for the horse show, which will take place Saturday at Salem.

All the Mitchell Hall boys and Brewer Hall boys are now drilling every morning before breakfast.—J. B.

Mr. Mudge's carpenters are pretty busy working on the wood shed, and they finished it last Saturday.—A. G.

Watch the Chemawa Band grow, as the new pupils are joining the band, one by one, and are sure to make it a success.

The teachers were entertained at Mr. Campbell's on Monday evening and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

We all enjoyed the sermon last Sunday night which was preached by Rev. Mr. Selleck of Salem Methodist Church.

The Chemawa baseball team will play its first game April the tenth, at Portland with the Albina Athletic Club.

Miss Irene Campbell and Gussie Cameron walked eight miles on Sunday and came home laden with beautiful spring flowers.

George Ferris while making a trip from Montana to Siletz, Oregon, stopped to visit his sisters, Viola and Ella, a few days this week.

At the rate the blacksmiths are advancing now, there will be many Chemawa blacksmiths throughout the Northwest, and oiling floors, too.

Father Datin and niece were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell during the week. Father Datin is the possessor of a beautiful baritone voice which has been highly cultivated. He delighted his friends by singing "The Marseillaise" as only a Frenchman can sing it.