

LOCALS

Ask Reggie Downie if he thinks it will rain?

Minnie Tibbits from Troutdale arrived on the 11th to attend school.

Fortunato Jayme is taking lessons on the typewriter and is doing nicely.

Esther Reed and Christine Selsic came from Siletz, Tuesday, to attend school.

Frank Dan opened up the second game of the Rose Avenue League with a home run.

The carpenters are making a turntable for the car track at the power house.

The Tyees won the second game of the series by defeating the Black Cats. Score 3 to 2.

Alden Clark and Frank Souvigner are the chief marble players among the small boys.

We are all glad to see Mrs. Mann out around the grounds again after being ill for some time.

Hazel and Minnie Picard left for their home in California after being here for a term of three years.

Walter Miller led the average of the Rose Avenue League for the first game, his average being .667.

Mr. Frank Cornell and wife and three daughters are here from Grande Ronde visiting Frank and Lawrence Smith.

Mary Campbell, after being at Chemawa for nine years, left with her father and mother for their home in Alaska on the 10th.

Leon Reinkin thought he got his finger smashed while sawing wood. After washing the blood off he found it nothing more than a scratch.

James Minesinger surprised his friends Tuesday by making two grand stand catches, but he soon cancelled them by making as many errors.

A handsome silver cup put up for the winning team of the Rose Avenue Baseball League by our superintendent is now on exhibition in the office window.

It may seem hard for the first team to give the practice time after supper to the Rose Avenue League, but if you will get out at four o'clock you will have enough practice for the day.

The Band is practicing new music all the time for the different engagements they will have to fill in a short time. The Rose Carnival in Portland and the Chautauqua assemble at Oregon City will require their services again this year as in other years.

We have just learned that Frank Booth, a former student who once said "No wedding bells for me," was married some time ago and is now living in Petersburg, Alaska. We did not learn her name, but judging from the tone of a letter from Frank he has made a good selection in his wife and we all join hands in wishing him a happy and prosperous future.

The companies are out on the parade ground promptly at six o'clock every morning for drill. Captain McCully of Company A, Wiggins of Company B, Lewis of Company C, and H. Darnell of Company D, understand the military tactics which are used in the drills, and the result of their commands is a noticeable improvement in the manner in which their companies execute the different manoeuvres.