

PUPILS' ITEMS

Mike Olsen is working in the wagon shop.

The gardeners are planting strawberries.—E. R.

We are all glad that the flowers are in bloom.—O. G.

Peter John plays baseball with the Moonshiners.—G. G.

Mrs. Bullard took the nurses out walking last Sunday.—M. G.

Alex Covington will represent the sixth grade with a song.—W. B.

Francis Kalama is doing some fine work in the power house.—W. L.

John Hunter is an afternoon fireman in the power house this week.—J. S.

The boys are now practicing baseball every evening at four o'clock.—J. B.

Arthur Steele is a great second baseman for the small boys' team.—R. W.

Mrs. Campbell went to Portland, Saturday, and returned Sunday evening.—S. B.

Miss Dohse took a company of girls out for a walk Sunday.—G. E. E. J.

Irma Pollock is working in the dining hall and does her work very neatly.—D. B.

Agnes Howard of Grand Ronde was admitted to the school last week.—A. M.

Pedro Chevio and Henry Oleson have entered the engineering department.—W. F.

Mr. Cooper was taken ill Monday and was confined to his bed for a few days.—J. D.

The morning school pupils are now busy working on their school gardens.—W. B.

Amos Smoker has come in on the lead every time they have had a try-out.—A. B.

Arthur Steele and Martin Colby are now orderlies at the school building.—R. B.

Laurette Tillier is very industrious and attentive to his work in the carpenter shop.—F. S.

The little girls have lots of fun sliding on the boards down at the girls' gymnasium.—E. Z.

Mr. J. F. Enright was in town yesterday afternoon and the tailors worked in the garden.—W. B.

Miss Grear acted as matron of McBride Hall during the absence of Mrs. Theisz last Tuesday.—M. L.

We boys and girls are glad that summer is coming and all kinds of flowers are blooming.—N. M.

A letter was received from Thos. Holden in which he wished to be remembered to his friends.—L. S.

Saturday, Miss Bender and Miss White took a trip to Portland and returned Sunday afternoon.—S. B.

Louis Pellitier and Milton George are doing some fine drawing for the fair at Seattle, Wash.—F. C. M.

The wagonmakers are making wood cars this week. Last week we made a turntable.—G. S.

Christina Lane practiced with the Mandolin Club for the first time Monday evening. She plays second violin.

Dorothy Talbot's foot is better, so she can walk again. We hope she will be more careful of hot tea next time.—S. K.

The Engineers have completed the new boiler fronts, which adds greatly to the appearance of the boiler room.—A. F. J.