

LOCALS

Mr. Fickle was in Portland last Friday.

Supt. Chalcraft was in Salem, Monday morning.

We are still looking forward to the Senior entertainment.

Some of the Excelsiors expect to have a party some time in the future.

Mr. Smith takes great pride in watering the flower beds and lawn in front of his office.

Lloyd Westley and his force of boys were out working along Rose Avenue, Monday morning.

Calvin Darnell, after pitching part of the game against O. A. C. last Friday, tipped the scales at 128 pounds.

It would be advisable for the orderlies to water the flower beds in the evening instead of in the heat of the day.

School gardens have commenced. As no school gardens were made last year more interest is expected this year.

The relay boys in eating wholesome doughnuts should eat the hole only and give the doughnut to their friends.

Some of the boys did not seem to understand that the order "full uniform," meant full uniforms last Sunday.

George Perry has touched up the inside of his phonograph bell with a little gold gilt, which makes its appearance more beautiful.

The Mitchell Hall boys do hereby kindly inform their bugler to solder up his bugle. We are inclined to believe it must leak, judging from the "Reveille."

Superintendent and Mrs. Chalcraft entertained Captain and Mrs. Chapman, their son Sam, and Mrs. Lynch of Portland, one day this week. Captain Chapman is an old friend of Col. Randlett.

A pet squirrel, which got away from one of the boys about two years ago, is still living under Brewer Hall. He is still tame and will come out and eat from one's hand.

Come out and see the Rose Avenue League ball games after supper. The following is the schedule for each week: Monday, Tigers vs. Unions; Tuesday, Tyees vs. Black Cats; Wednesday, Tigers vs. Tyees; Thursday, Unions vs. Black Cats; Friday, Tigers vs. Black Cats and Saturday, Unions vs. Tyees.

The Riverside Chamber of Commerce gave a banquet in honor of Harwood Hall, whose eight years of faithful service as Superintendent of Sherman Institute has made every citizen of Riverside his debtor. The banquet was held at Glenwood Mission Inn on Tuesday evening, April the twentieth.

Brevities

Oscar Case is improving in making noise around the grounds.

The band boys expect to give another concert some time in the near future.

We have heard of two defeats of our first team. What is our second team doing?

Leon Reinkin is still in charge of the wood shed. He enjoys having the "forgetful" boys helping him.

Henry Darnell suprised some of his larger friends at batting Saturday while helping out the Tigers. He made two hits out of three times up. The third time he only got a smile.
