

LOCALS

Willie Ingram was a visitor here Friday and Sunday.

Reuben Saunders visited Mrs. Brewer, Saturday afternoon.

The band gave a concert last Sunday, playing a number of sacred pieces.

Michel Wilson and a number of his friends were out in the woods last Sunday with his talking machine.

Mr. Enright received official notice last week of his election to the position of "Official Scorer" for Rose Avenue League. Other officers of the league, as known to us, are, C. E. Larsen, president; Harry Queachpalma, vice-president, and Eugene Williams, secretary.

A recent press dispatch from Aberdeen, Wash., says: Dr. Charles Buchanan, for about fifteen years superintendent of the Tulalip Indian reservation, but transferred a few months ago to the Haskell Institute at Lawrence, Kan., has been ordered by the department to return to Tulalip to continue the work of building up the local boarding school. Dr. Buchanan and family will arrive here within the coming week.

An attractive souvenir of the annual football banquet at the Salem Indian training school at Chemawa, Oregon, has been received here. The banquet was held on March 16th after a successful season during which six games out of eight were won. Assistant Superintendent Campbell acted as toastmaster and the toasts were responded to by Superintendent Chalcraft, Dr. Lieurance, Mr. Enright, Mr. Smith, Joseph Dillstrom, Levi Sotor and David Graham, the captain of the team.—The Native American.

DO YOU KNOW—

That our wrestlers will win tonight?
That Jimmie Evans lost his chewing gum?

That you can not laugh during Bible study?

That the girls beat the boys into chapel Sunday morning?

That Ed. Lynch will throw his man as fast as he gets up?

The Bible class is evenly divided? Just as many boys as girls.

Why certain band boys stayed out of last Sunday's band concert?

That David Graham did the best battling for the first team last Saturday?

Which shop report is the first one in the disciplinarian's office every morning?

That a number of the boys and girls quit chewing gum in chapel? Some have not.

That on visiting the Bible class those expecting to be there were the leading members?

Who will make good and who will not in the final try-out for the fifty-mile relay race?

That George Williams is going to beat John Brown and Frank Souvigner in the final try-out?

That liniment would last twice as long if you had twice as far to go after it in the other direction?

That the girls who went to the pie house Sunday wrote their names with some other friends name on the pie plates and hung them on the barb wire fence and also printed their initials in the soft clay along the side of the road?
