

The Chemawa American

Published Weekly at the United States Indian Training School.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE, 25 CENTS A YEAR. CLUBS OF FIVE OR OVER 20 CENTS.

Entered at the Chemawa, Oregon, Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

PRINTING STAFF

JOSEPH DILLSTROM, BENJAMIN WILCOX
HENRY DARNELL, JOHN SERVICE, JAMES EVANS
CALVIN DARNELL, LOUIS HUDSON FRAZIER
MECUM, ROBERT SERVICE, CARL STONE.

LOCALS

Reuben Saunders was a visitor from Salem, Sunday.

A dress parade was held Sunday afternoon. This was the first one held here this year.

Mr. Campbell, on Tuesday, was wearing the first rose of summer, picked from the side of his cottage.

Chemawa's enrollment for the month of April was 625. Average attendance for the month was 614.

Mr. Lowenfeldt was out taking pictures of the school Tuesday and Wednesday for the Seattle Exposition.

The Excelsiors had a social on Tuesday evening. The next morning the gym looked like a hog wallow. Why?

Hon. Geo. Chamberlain, senator from Oregon, has been assigned to the Committee of Indian Affairs of the Senate.

On Monday evening we had an excellent monthly entertainment. Space forces us to give an account of this next week.

Mr. Burdett and his boys have been busy the past week putting up fences on the north side of the school grounds, dividing the campus from the orchards.

The baseball boys were furnished a good consignment of baseball supplies this week, over a hundred dollars worth of the same being purchased for the team.

Mr. Mann and the blacksmiths moved over the new double oven range which arrived at the school and installed it in the domestic science kitchen on Tuesday.

About sixty of the boys and employes attended the wrestling match between Chemawa and the Oregon Agricultural College which came off in the Salem Opera House last week.

The repairs at the power house have been completed and the engineering department is now better than ever in the history of the school, and unexcelled anywhere in the service.

Field Days have been arranged for meets with McMinnville College and Pacific University. The former to be held at McMinnville on June 14, and the latter at Chemawa the first week in June.

Charles E. Frye of Flora, Indiana, has been appointed wagonmaker vice Mr. George Mudge who was temporarily filling the position. Mr. Frye arrived at the school Tuesday with his wife and little son.

Miss Helen C. Clarke from Neah Bay was a welcome guest of the school on Monday. Miss Clarke had addressed an audience in Salem on the Indian question on Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church.

The work of remodeling the small girls' home is rapidly progressing and will be finished before the end of the present fiscal year, giving our small girls a handsome, sanitary, up-to-date, light and airy quarters.