 DILLSTROM-EVANS.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Monday evening, May 10, 1909, in Chemawa's spacious new gymnasium; Miss May Evans and Mr. Henry Dillstrom being united in holy matrimony by Rev. Davis Errett of Salem, Oregon, in the presence of relatives and a host of friends of the bride and groom. The beautiful and impressive ring service was used.

The bride was charming in her gown of simple white, with wreath of bridal roses, and carried an immense shower bouquet of carnations. The groom was attired in conventional black. Miss Belle Dillstrom was bridesmaid and Mr. Ernest Brewer acted as best man.

The large rostrum was artistically decorated with white tulle, with a beautiful background of white lilacs arranged with a profusion of other flowers. The large wedding bell was of Lillies of the Valley and smilax and was suspended with large streamers of white ribbon.

After the ceremony a brief reception followed, during which sincere congratulations were showered upon the young couple. A most delicious wedding luncheon was served to relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The young people left on the 8:55 p. m. car, amid a deluge of good wishes, rice and old shoes, for Portland to spend a brief honeymoon.

The newly married couple were both former pupils of Chemawa and are a credit to the school. Mr. Dillstrom was a graduate of the Class of '07 and at present is manager of the Chemawa Dairy of which M. W. Cooper is proprietor. The American adds its good wishes.
