

LOCALS

Superintendent Chalcraft has been particularly busy this week getting the photographs of the school taken.

We were favored with two beautiful songs by Miss Evelyn Woods at the Dillstrom-Evans wedding on Monday night.

Somebody was making a sound like a "Charivari" on Wednesday night. Who says the Indians are not becoming civilized?

Mr. Turney and his boys have had an unusual amount of work to do and we will be surprised if the paper comes out at the usual time.

Mrs. Campbell spent Saturday in Portland with her son, Mr. Herbert Campbell. Miss Irene surprised her mother by going up on the next train.

The flower beds around the school building are looking very well. Miss Royer's is looking particularly well. The seniors have planted daisies around the fountain.

It is pretty hard to keep the Academic building in good condition during these gardening days. Boys and girls who go out to work in their gardens must try and clean their shoes before coming into the hall.

The wedding on Monday night was one of the most prominent events of the year. Both the young people have a host of friends at Chemawa who are proud of them and who wish them happiness and success.

The band of the O. A. C. gave a fine concert in the gym on Tuesday afternoon. Our friend, Mr. Beard, who was at one time an employe at Chemawa, is the leader of the band, and has brought it up to a high standard.

PUPILS' ITEMS

The wild strawberries are getting ripe.—R. L.

The girls looked nice in their uniforms when they had their pictures taken.—V. S.

The boys are now training for the field meet with McMinnville College.—E. H.

Myrtle Wilson's father came last night on the six o'clock train to visit his daughters.—M. S.

All the Alaskan boys and girls had their picture taken Wednesday afternoon.—W. B.

A doctor from Alaska came up here and took some of the Alaska children to town.—L. D.

Malvina Moxley thinks that she will have the blue ribbon flying over her garden.—E. H.

Lillie Burns left for her home in Marshfield, Oregon, and we all hope she had a pleasant time on her way.—E. E. G.

The Chemawa baseball team played a game of baseball with the Dallas baseball team on Saturday and the score was 7 to 3 in favor of Dallas.—H. R.

Colonel Randlett, one of Chemawa's very best friends, has just sent us a copy of the paper published at La Mesa which contains a picture of his handsome home. We are always glad to hear from the Colonel and hope to have another visit from him before long.