Some of the school gardens look pretty dry.

The Juniors are going to have a very nice garden.

The Senior boys and girls are proud of their gardens.

The Seniors are asking "when will we have our final test?"

Mrs. Campbell's orderlies are taking good care of the flower beds.

Margaret Lowry, of the Senior Class, wrote the Indian story in this week's American.

The teachers spent Friday evening and Saturday preparing the schoolroom exhibits for the A. Y. P. E.

Mrs. Campbell had an interesting letter from Mrs. Cloutier, who wishes to be remembered to all Chemawa friends.

We are surprised that the Seniors do not show more interest in their school paper. Very few items are received from them.

Miss Hutchinson was very much delighted over finding the first rose in bloom in front of the office and as a result, picked it and wore it in her hair.

Miss Bertha Cooper, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cooper for the past week, went to Salem, Monday, where she has a position in the State Asylum for the Insane

Did you notice the fine discipline in the O. A. C. Band? Every member carried himself and instrument in a business-like manner. Chemawa band please take notice. It seems like child's play to hear people say, that strict discipline is a thing of the past and that a band can not be well disciplined.

The Weekly Chemawa American is improving greatly. The last issue received had some very good cuts of the football boys. Each issue usually has one cut of some building or view. Every one seems to hand in some item at least once a month. This is a good idea, and it is a fine thing to have students who will do it.—The Oasis.

TAILOR SHOP ITEMS

Douglas Luke is a pretty good button-hole maker.—J. B.

Herbert Reinken is putting stripes on Alvin Pollock's trousers.—D. L.

If you want your uniform stripes put on, go to Patsy Barrett.—W. S.

Willie Luke had a great job repairing George Horn's trousers this week.

The tailors are nearly through putting the stripes on the officers' trousers.

Patsy Barrett is one of the excellent trouser makers, and he can make a pigs eye, too.—C. M.

I have been in the tailor shop for three months and I am making great progress.—A. R.

If a baseball game could be arranged with the pupils of the blind school Chemawa might win a game.

John Rainville is now working in the tailor shop and is learning how to make buttonholes.

—N. H.

Albert and John Rainville are getting along fine in the tailor shop. Johnnie is the buttonhole maker, and Albert the trousers maker.—E. F.
