

PUPILS' ITEMS

Fred Wright is going to try-out for the track team.—F. B.

Adeline Lott is expecting her father to visit her soon.—L. W.

The wild strawberries are just beginning to get ripe.—G. G.

The little girls have lots of fun teetering on the boards.—L. C.

Miss White took eight girls out for a walk Sunday and had a good time.—M. J.

Virginia Garry has finished embroidering a pretty white dress for the fair.—J. L.

The girls who went to the pie house with Mrs. Liphart enjoyed their walk.—G. M.

Miss Martha Andy received a very pretty watch fob from one of her friends at home.—E. O.

The sewing room girls will be glad when they get to work on the summer uniforms.—L. R.

The sewing-room will be finished this week and the girls will start to work there next week.

Fred Rushman is getting to be a pretty good baker. We hope he will stay with it and learn the trade.—L. T.

The smaller boys of Brewer Hall are seen every evening training for the two coming field meets.—J. B.

Mrs. Theisz was very busy the last few days getting the exhibit work ready to send to the Seattle fair.—H. D.

The baseball team is arranging and losing games right along, but they promise to do better in the future.—L. S.

The girls of the small girls' home like to watch Miss Irene Campbell and her father play on the tennis court.—L. B.

Ellen Olney received a letter from her mother, saying that she was coming to pay Ellen and Grover a long visit this summer.

The track team is busy training for the field meet which we are soon to have. I hope they will be in good shape on all athletic lines.—A. F.

Nellie Spencer and Katie Underwood were successful in getting a few hand drawn photographs of different students on the grounds.—M. M.

Mamie Smith says that she wishes she could be dining hall girl all the time so she could be out in fresh the air early every morning.—N. E. S.

Sarah Brewer, Bertha Spencer, Annie Evans and Belle Dillstrom, went for a long walk Sunday afternoon, chaperoned by Miss Bender.—N. S.

Last Saturday the Chemawa Indians crossed bats with the Mt. Angel team and were defeated 2 to 0. The game was played at Mt. Angel.—J. S.

Mr. Reads, one of Mr. Goudge's classmates, took charge in chapel last Sunday night. We all enjoyed his talk very much and we hope he will be with us again soon.—V. C.

Exhibit work was called for from the different departments. So the tailoring shop is now in full blast, turning out coats and trousers and draftings for the same to be cut out by the tailor apprentices. The feature of the exhibit will be the woman's "trying on jacket," which has some of Alex Cajete's basting thread to show what Chemawa tailors can do.—M. G.